

The message is clear on this float entry from Local Union 1907. In this coal-rich area, coal may very well be the key to the economic future. The float was one of many colorful entries into one of the better parades seen locally in recent years.