

Wood Memorial's Trojan Band shown turning the Hart-Broadway corner in Princeton during the Labor Day Parade. The Trojans marched well — adding color to one of the best parades ever held in Princeton and were later awarded a first place trophy by the judges.