Hopkinsville, 4; Henderson, 3.

Cairo, Ill., July 11.—(Special.)—The Allices made it eight straight this afternoon by losing both games of a double header to the Cairo River Rats. In both games Gus Bonno pitched for the Allices, but he proved to be the principle factor in the loss of both games. In the first game, with the score a tie, Bono made a wild throw to first in the eighth inning, which allowed two men to score. In the second game he permitted Cairo to bunch their hits, as a result of which they won the game.

The results of the two games were as follows:

First game:

Clubs	R.	H.	E.
Cairo	4	8	4
Vincennes	2	5	2

Batteries—Cairo, Bittroff and Harvey; Vincennes, Bonno and Lemon.

Second game:

Clubs	R.	H.	E.
Cairo	5	9	1
Vincennes	2	6	5

Batteries—Cairo, Lane and Harvey; Vincennes, Bonno and Lemon.

Paducah Shut Out.

Paducah, Ky., July 11.—(Special.)—The Infants administered a shut out to the Paducah Indians today in the first game of the series. The results of the game were as follows:

Clubs	R.	H.	E.
Princeton	1	4	3
Paducah	0	5	3

Batteries—Princeton, Becker and Downing; Paducah, Brabic and Land.

Hoppers Still Winning.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 11.—(Special.)—The Hens took another hold on the fall end today, as a result of losing to the Hoppers, regardless of the fact that the Hens got thirteen hits and played an errorless game. The results were as follows:

Clubs	R.	H.	E.
Hopkinsville	4	9	1
Henderson	3	13	0

Batteries—Hopkinsville, Simpson and Rutledge; Henderson, Asher and Clegg.

Thompson Arrives.

"Swy" Thompson, the new infielder secured from the Terre Haute Central League team, arrived in the city Tuesday afternoon and will join the Vincennes club at Cairo this morning.

Another Shake-Up.

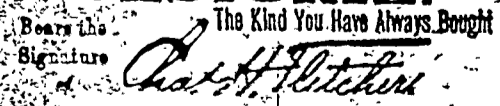

It is said that another shake-up in the local team is expected soon, and that probably Lemon and Cooper will feel the effect of the action taken by the management.

Vincennes is Favored.

Terre Haute Ind., July 11.—Terre Haute and Evansville would like to have the Ft. Wayne franchise transferred to Vincennes, which city is said to be desirous of quitting the Kitty League. The attendance at Vincennes is as large as in some of the Central League cities, but the particular advantage would be in the mileage, Vincennes being half-way between Terre Haute and Evansville. Curtis, from Colorado Springs, reported last night to play right field for Springfield, and third baseman Fox, formerly with Grand Rapids, reported to play that position for Terre Haute. Osteen joined Springfield here.

WOMAN SWALLOWS PEARLS

Was Eating Sweets and Mistook Two Gems for Bits of the Candy.

The case of Senora Morales, of Cordova, recalls the classic story of Cleopatra dissolving priceless pearls in a goblet of wine. Cleopatra, however, drank the pearls on purpose, says the Madrid correspondent of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, whereas Senora Morales declares that she swallowed them in a fit of absent-mindedness. The other day a handsome and richly dressed lady, with a box of candy in her hand, entered a Madrid jeweler's and asked to see some large unset pearls.

While examining the gems she helped herself liberally to the sweets. Suddenly, to the clerk's horror, she put two valuable pearls in her mouth and swallowed them before she had time to cry out. On learning what she had done, the lady expressed intense horror, but refused to pay for the gems, which were valued at 1,500 pesetas, declaring that she had not purchased them, and could not be held responsible for an accident.

The clerk detained her, and called in the police. Senora Morales was formally accused of the theft. The jeweler admitted that as long as the lady remained in his shop she could not be charged with any act of dishonesty, but by leaving the premises without restoring the jewels she had consciously committed robbery.

THE JAPANESE CHARACTER.

Incident Which Illustrates the Combination of Strength and Gentleness.

Later that day, at a hamlet which could boast no officials and no societies, yet where our train stopped ten minutes, there stood a typical country schoolmaster, with his female assistant and their 20 elementary pupils, writes Anita Newcomb McGee, in "The American Nurses in Japan," in Century. In very broken English he bashfully told me he had been teaching his pupils about benevolence and charity, and how these virtues were exemplified by our coming so great a distance to aid the people of another land. To impress the lesson more deeply on their memories, he said, he had brought them to see and greet us. An incident like this throws a vivid light on the Japanese mind, and ideas of education. One of the most remarkable things in the Japanese character is the combination of that fiery heroism in battle, of which all have read, with the gentleness, courtesy and simple-minded, almost childlike frankness which was shown to us.

SECRET OF JAP SUCCESS.

Always Ready for War and Possessed of Patriotism That Is Fanatical.

The result of the Japanese naval operations reveals the old truth that the mere possession of ships of the most powerful types, such as Russia possessed, does not mean naval power, says Cassier's Magazine. In spite of all the assistance which science has rendered in perfecting weapons of attack and in improving the mode of defense by armor protection and high speed, the character of the personnel—admiral, officers and men—and their war efficiency are the deciding factors in warfare. The Japanese exhibited this dominating fact in their contest of ten years ago against China, now they have illustrated it in an even more striking manner by crushing the Russian fleet in the far east.

The Japanese have proved afloat, as well as ashore, that they have the fighting edge. The racial factors—indifference to death, simplicity of life, the high courage of fanatical patriotism—have all helped; but, above all, their success spells "war readiness."

FOR CARRIAGE GRACES.

Young Ladies Practice Entering and Alighting from Vehicle at Fashionable School.

Some of our modern modes of instruction are as exacting as those of an older time. Grandmother used to wear a wooden busk to make her straight, and to take lessons in eating with her knife and drinking delicately from her saucer. But the new "miss" has some equally exacting tasks.

The New York Press says that there is one fashionable school for girls where deportment is a most important branch. It is not studied; it is practiced. In the back yard is an old brougham.

"What on earth is that carriage there for?" asked a visitor.

"That," said the principal, "is for teaching our girls how to enter and alight from a carriage. The students step in and out of it three hours a week. They learn to make their entrance and their exit with grace."

SELF-POSSESSED TRAVELER.

Had Her Pocket Picked, But Didn't Lose Her Composure or Baggage Check.

The late Mrs. Isabella Bishop, whose travels in different parts of the world secured for her membership in the Royal Geographical society, visited America when she was a young woman. She was unused to travel and was alone when she had the following experience, which is told in Blackwood's Magazine:

"Once, in a train going to New York, she was dreadfully tired, and yet she had a feeling that if she went to sleep the man sitting next her would pick her pocket. She struggled for some time against her inclination to sleep, but having for a moment given way, she awakened to feel the hand of her neighbor gently withdrawing her purse from her pocket.

"In her purse, besides some money which was, comparatively speaking, of small moment, was her baggage check. That was the only thing that really mattered. If she accused her neighbor of theft, nothing was simpler for him than to drop the purse out of the open window beside which he was sitting. No; she determined she would leave any interference until they arrived at their destination.

"She secured the services of a porter and, with apparent calmness, followed her traveling companion down the platform. Having described her luggage to the porter, she at the critical moment bowed slightly to the pickpocket, and with an airy smile, said: 'This gentleman has my baggage check, and he immediately presented it to her.'

Penguins of Interest.

The penguins, of which about a dozen species still exist on the rocky islands and coasts of the southern hemisphere, are of unusual interest as the survivors of the great flightless birds. Human greed has been attracted to these rare creatures, and Dr. E. A. Wilson, an English naturalist, points out that within the last few years thousands of them have been slaughtered for oil on Macquarie Island and the Auckland, not less than 100 tons of the oil having been recently placed on the market. A new scheme is to establish great oil cauldrons in the Auckland islands. Thus far the "rookeries" of these islands have suffered comparatively little from man, but the carrying out of the new project will bring speedy extinction to one of the most unique life forms of the world.

Good for Him.

"Are you on good terms with all your guests?" asked the new arrival at the winter resort.

"Very good terms," chuckled the landlord of the hotel. "About $10 per day."—Chicago News.
