WHISTLE

Of the Rolling Mill Will Blow When Parade Moves

Distinctive Demonstration Will Inaugurate a New Impetus in This City.

The finishing touches are now being made to insure a continuous jubilication on Labor Day, and when the "particular parade" is over, all will have seen a true and worthy pageant of the sons of toil. The unique and amusing; and nothing is being left undone to make everybody feel like they had "one real day of rest and enjoyment."

Mayor George E. Greene will deliver:the opening address and will be followed by C. W. Kleckland of Loin front of the grand stand and the attractions on the track.

A prize of $10 in gold will be given to the union making the best appearance in line, and $5 in gold to the next best appearing union in line. Official notification was received Tuesday from Sullivan that they would be here doubly strong and would bring a band. Bicknell and Princeton will also be here, as well as other organizations.

George E. Gardner has voluntarily tendered the use of his two handsome cabs and spanking black and white teams for the speakers and the committee.

To Bill Princeton.

The Labor Day committee will begin to bill out-of-town today, and the ret trip with the green hangers will be on the E. & T. H. south as far as Princeton. The billing on this road will be in the hands of J. C. Mayes and A. H. Roseman.

Physical Ills of Temper.

Would you be well? Then control your temper. Do you not know that fits of passion, this giving way to the worst that is in you, does you not only moral and men al, but actual physical harm? Temper invariably interferes with the process of digestion, it carves ugly lines on your laces; it wears upon the tissues, and leaves us physically and mentally exhausted, as we'l as morally weaker after each indulgence.-St. Louis Postdistantich
