

Labor Day Beauty Queen

WARRICK COUNTY CAPTURED TOP HONORS in the Labor Day Beauty Contest held Saturday evening at Oakland City as lovely Miss Betty Joyce Scales, of Lynnville, was crowned Queen of the Labor Day. The dark-haired Miss Scales is shown above receiving the crown of honor and bouquet of royalty from Evansville Mayor Vance Hartke, (D.) candidate for U.S. Senator. Miss Scales, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ebor Scales, won the honor over 17 other beauties, representing Warrick, Gibson and Pike Counties. Along with the honor and distinction of being the queen, the seventeen-year-old Lynnville High School senior received $100.00 in cash for copping first place.

Norma Gregory, of Owensville, received the second prize of $50.00 while Dottie Henning, of Spurgeon, was awarded third prize of $25.00. Other Warrick girls who competed in the contest as a result of winning in the local eliminations, were: Betty Joyce Harding (Boonville), Sylvia Simon (Chandler), Lolita Camp (Boonville), Lynda Raven (Chandler), and Peggy Blackford (Boonville). The beauty contest was the "kick-off" event of the annual three-day celebration which attracted thousands to Oakland City. —CHILDS' HOME STUDIO
