

Boonville Girl Named Miss Labor

Special to The Courier

Boonville, Ind. — Miss Lou McCool, 16-year-old blue-eyed blonde, daughter of Mrs. Ellen Fulkerson of Boonville, Route 4, and Marvin McCool, of Boonville, was named Miss Labor Day in the beauty contest at Princeton Saturday night.

Miss McCool was awarded $100 for first place in the contest. In second place was Miss Sylvia Fields of Princeton, winner of $50, and Miss Sandy Blemker, of Princeton, who took third place and won $25.

Miss McCool is a sophomore in Boonville High School. She was chosen from 17 girls who represented Gibson, Pike, and Warrick counties, and Mount Carmel, Ill.

According to Mertis Underhill, Lynnville Road, Warrick County representative, the Lynnville Local No. 9926 won first prize for its float; second place as the best dressed local, and first place on attendance. It won $100 for its float.

The traveling trophy was given the local for its attendance and display prize.
