

Southern Indiana Labor Day Association
Presents Its Eleventh Consecutive

Labor Day Celebration

Fairgrounds at
Boonville, Indiana

September 2, 1935

A gala day filled to the brim every minute with something new and different. This celebration is made possible by the various Union Crafts and Farm Bureau units in southern Indiana, south of the B. & O. railroad, and the business men located in the city in which the celebration is held. The organization has done its utmost to give you a celebration that you will long remember. Everything possible has been done for your comfort. Come out, enjoy the day and hear some of America's foremost speakers, enjoy the entertainment we have secured for your pleasure.

Parade at 10 A. M.--

This parade will move off at exactly 10:00 a. m. from the public square with bands, drum corps, floats and the various local unions and Farm Bureau units.

Speeches--

Some of America's foremost speakers will be heard, presenting to you the problems of both organized labor and Farm Bureau organizations.

Band Concert--

The Vincennes Band will play the concerts for the day and evening.

The Sunshine Revue--

Featuring Mabel Janis, prima donna; Bee Collins, comedienne; the Mack Boys' Quartette; Beautiful Dancing Girls, etc.

Merrill Bros. Troupe--

In three acts—Beautiful Hand Balancing Act, High Perch Act, and Slack Wire.

Steiner Trio--

In a comedy bar act and comedy acrobatic act.

Balloon Ascension--

Prof. Ruth will do a triple parachute leap from a height that will thrill you.

Carrie Day's Dogs--

An act that will please both the young and old.

Sound Equipment--

The services of the Ohio Valley Sound Service have been secured to amplify the program so that all may hear.

Rumble's 5 Big Rides—Shows of All Descriptions—
Concessions of Every Kind

Sacred Services

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 2:30 TO 4:00 P. M.

2:30 P. M.—Sacred Music by Boonville Band.

3:00 P. M.—Church Services by the Rev. F. C. Carrier of Evansville, Indiana. Also Music by Quartette.

4:00 P. M.—Sacred Concert by Boonville Band.

FREE

AMPHITHEATRE
ADMISSION
PARKING

FREE