

Labor Day Fete To Be Held At Fairgrounds

Final preparations are being made for the annual Labor Day celebration of the United Mine Workers of America, Sub District Number 1, of District 11, which will be held Sunday and Monday at the local Fair Grounds.

The Rev. C. E. Williams, of Evansville, will give the address for the sacred service on Sunday afternoon. Music by various groups will be a feature of the program.

Cash prizes of $15, $10, and $7.50 will be awarded the winners in the amateur show at 8:30 p. m.

At 10 a. m. Monday the parade will form at the public square.

A band concert by the Boonville High School band will begin the Monday afternoon program at 1:00 o'clock.

Main attraction on the afternoon program will be an address by the Honorable Charles M. LaFollette, congressman from the eighth congressional district, at 1:30 o'clock.

A four-ring horse show will be staged at 5:00 o'clock.

Rogers Great Shows will be on the Midway, with free acts by Sidel Belmont's Amusement Co., of St. Louis, Mo.

Admission will be free, with free parking and plenty of ice water.
