

Final Plans For Labor Day Are Completed

Business houses were decorated with red, white and blue bunting, Wednesday in preparation for the two-day Labor Day celebration to be held in Boonville, September 1 and 2.

The celebration will open Sunday afternoon with a program of religious music at 2 p. m.

A ten-act amateur show will be featured Sunday evening with prizes of $15, $10 and $7.50 being awarded the winners.

The parade, consisting of floats and Local representatives and lead by the high school band, will form on south Second street at 10:00 a.m. Labor Day.

Outstanding speakers for the day will be Honorable Wm. Stevens, the Mayor of Boonville, Thos. Laite, Townsend speaker, Winfield K. Denton, 8th Congressional District, and Robert Condra, of Pittsburgh, Pa., International representative of the United Mine Workers of America.

A six class horse show will be shown Monday evening at 5:00. The classes and awards will be:

Pony—$15, $10, $5.

Professional Three-gaited—$35, $25, $15.

Pleasure—$25, $17.50, $10.

Five-gaited Amateur—$25, $17.50, $10.

Western—$25, $17.50, $10.

Professional Five-gaited—$35, $25, $15.

Herschel Fischel, of Washington, Indiana, will be judge.

Band concerts and eight free specialty acts by the Sidney Belmonts will complete the evening program.

Rogers Greater Shows will be the attraction on the Midway.