

THE FOUR MAXELLOS TO BE HERE FOR LABOR DAY CELEBRATION

The Four Maxellos have long been considered one of the finest acts of its type. They feature risley work—three high. The unusual combination of two men and two young ladies make the act particularly attractive and features tricks of skill that are the envy of all performers. Their audience participation bit garners plenty of sock comedy. This attraction toured with the Ritz Bros. for many years.