

vine, Lymvime high school band, Local 7661, Tecumseh of Boonville; Local 7693, Ditney Hill of Elberfeld; Spurgeon High School band, Local 352, Blackfoot of Oakland City; Oakland City High School band, Local 5179, Enos of Spurgeon; Local 8542, Big Creek of Boonville; Local 8938, Saxton of Oakland City; Local 8754 Shaw of Boonville; all other local unions, Boy and Girl Scout troops, Business Mens' floats, miscellaneous and all saddle clubs.

A horse show at 7:30 Saturday night, Sept. 5, will get the program under way. Nine classes will be shown with prizes of $12 for first place, $8 for second, $6 for third and $4 for fourth awarded in each class.

The nine classes are: pony, 50 in. and under; three-gaited English tack; bareback wand race—against time; western pair—no credit given for silver; five-gaited English tack; jolly dancing horses; western musical chair; harness horses, and junior horsemanship for riders 16 and under.

The Thomas Joyland Shows and rides will be on the midway during the Saturday night performance and throughout the celebration.

Milton Board of Princeton will be master of ceremonies at the sacred service beginning at 2:30. Rev. Harry Miley of Boonville will bring the invocation and Rev. Donald McNalley of Princeton will be the speaker.

Music will be provided by the Velpen Double quartet, Miss Marilyn Tuley of Boonville, soloist, accompanied by Miss Sarah Emerson; the Freedom quartet of Boonville, and Miss Doris Parke, soloist and accordionist of Spurgeon.

Henry S. Mason, Reathal Byers and Oadie Dearing make up the program committee for this service.

Twelve big acts will be included in the amateur show at 8 o'clock Sunday evening. Milton Board, Fred Shoulders and Sam Champlin are the program committee members.

The parade at 10 a.m. will inaugurate the Monday activities. The parade will form at the Miners Hall on South Third street. From there it will move north on Third street to Main street, then west to First street, finally turning north to the fairgrounds.

At the fairgrounds the welcome address will be given by Mayor Onis G. Rudolph.

The Dixie Division band will present a concert at 11 a.m., followed by a talk by George Doup, secretary-treasurer of the Indiana Farm Bureau at 11:40.

Rep. D. Bailey Merrill, congressman from the Eighth District, will deliver an address at 2 p.m. with the first portion of the afternoon performance of the Barnes-Carruthers shows following at 2:30.

Charles Ferguson, director of the safety division of the U.M.W.A., Washington, D. C., the principal speaker of the day, will be heard at 3:15 with the remainder of the Barnes-Carruthers program at 3:45. This show will also be pre-