

Three-Day Event Here

The Labor Day Celebration to be held this week end in Boonville promises to surpass any other celebration of its kind ever held here.

Beginning on Saturday and continuing through Monday, August 31-Sept. 2, a big three-day celebration will be in progress at the Warrick County Saddle Club grounds at the south edge of Boonville.

Masters of ceremonies will be Lee Hart and Leo Sermerheim.

The midway of the club grounds will feature 11 rides from the Yabroudy Amusement Park and during the program Monday, the Barnes-Carruthers Shows will feature free acts. An advance ticket sale for the rides is in progress. Tickets may be purchased at 8 for $1.00 from Lee Hart, phone 893. The rides will be set up two days in advance of the celebration and the midway will be in operation today (Thursday).

Saturday, August 31, Robert S. Bates, State Civil Defense director, will be the speaker at 7 p.m. A horse show will begin at 7:30 p.m. with eight featured events. Officials of the horse show will be "Cap" Gardner, Judge; Tom Hickman, announcer, and Les Hendrickson, ringmaster. The horse show committee will be composed of Mirtis Underhill, William E. Lockhart and August Block.

Sunday, September 1, Sacred Services will be held at 2:00 p.m. with the Rev. Rollin Simpson in charge. William Lockhart and Maurice Underwood will be the committee for these services.

Sunday evening starting at 8 p.m. an amateur program will be held. Participating in this event will be Merry's Square Dancers, Boonville; Linda King, Sharon Fulling, Pantomime; Linda Chapman, Patsy Chapman, Gail McGlothlin, Song and Dance; Gloria Sickman, accordion; James Howard daughters, Fire Twirlers Baton Duet; Janice Cook, Jerre Ann Hargis, Mary Ann Klipsch, Petersburg, tap dance; Sheryl Hill, Otwell, vocal; Cathy Weeks, Glezen, vocal and Annabelle Martin, Suzie DeJarnett, Donna Dawson, Winslow, trio dancing.

The Amateur program committeemen are Orman Broshers, Herb Phelps and Otho Greene.

Labor Day, Monday, September 2, Erhard Phingston of Iowa, a farm speaker N. F. O., will address the group at 9:45 a.m. At 10 a.m. the parade will be reviewed and Miss Barbara Wright, Boonville, will sing the National Anthem.

The parade will form at South Second and Walnut Streets and will go north around the square and then south on Third Street to the Saddle Club grounds.

Mayor Orgle Myers will give the welcoming address.

After noon Max Wright, of the A. F. of L. C. I. O. will speak. His speech will be followed by a free act.

At 2:15 p.m. Louis Austin, an Int. Board Member of U. M. W. of A. will address the group. Free acts will be held at 2:45 and again at 8 p.m.

The admission to the Saddle Club grounds is free. There will be plenty of parking space and plenty of ice water.

L'ville School Registration Is Friday

Principal Edward M. Raber of the Lynnville Public School announces that student registration will begin at 8:00 a.m. on August 30, for kindergarten through 12. The first complete day of school will begin at 8:00 a.m., Tuesday, September 3. Kindergarten through 8 will be on book rental.

New textbooks will be on sale (at the school September 3) for the subjects where new textbook adoptions were made for the 1963-64 school year.

Donov'n Young Named Jaycee President

Donovan Young was elected president of the Boonville Jaycees at the August 22 meeting of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Young replaces Bob Bohn who has been transferred by the Telephone Company to Indianapolis.

Also elected were Jerry Clark as first vice-president and Elijah Wiley as director.
