Winning Floats In Labor Day Parade . . .

Pictured above are the winning floats participating in the Labor Day Parade held in Boonville last Monday morning. A crowd estimated at 10,000 saw the parade. The Enos Local had the winning float in the parade (pictured left). Second place was won by Kings Local, and third place, the Lynnville Local. In the uniform division, Lynnville won first; Black Foot, second, and Enos, third. Lynnville Local won the attendance loving cup. The winning business float was the Winslow Businessmen with Van Gas, second. (Greer Studio)
