

Speaker will share his book

Featured Speaker: Timothy P. Lynch Ph.D. will present his timeless book: "Strike Songs of the Depression" on Sunday, September 2 at 1 p.m. in the Home Economics Building of the Gibson County Fairgrounds.

A reception and book signing will be held after the presentation.

Admission is free.

Tim Lynch was born and raised in the Chicago area, where his father worked as a union carpenter. Tim attended Xavier University in Cincinnati as an undergraduate, majoring in History and Philosophy. He later returned to Xavier, earning a masters degree in the Humanities.

After teaching high school for 11 years, he entered the doctoral program in History at Miami University (Ohio), with an emphasis in American Labor History. His dissertation, Strike Songs of the Depression, was published by the University Press of Mississippi in 2001.

For the past 17 years, Tim has taught at the College of Mount Saint Joseph in Cincinnati, where he is a professor of History. Tim and his wife, Peg, have one child, Abby.

Tim is completing construction of their new home in the Georgetown, Ohio, area. He has done much of the work himself, including all of the carpentry. His thoughts about the experience are captured in his forthcoming book, "To Build a Home: Reflections on Construction."

Heavenly sounds

The Labor Day Association Gospel Sing 2007 will be held Sunday, September 2 at 2 p.m.

The Labor Day Association is proud to feature recording artist Jeff Bryant & Friends at the annual Gospel Sing. The Gospel Sing program is the second oldest event in the history of the Labor Day Celebration.
