

Mayor proclaims Labor Day Appreciation

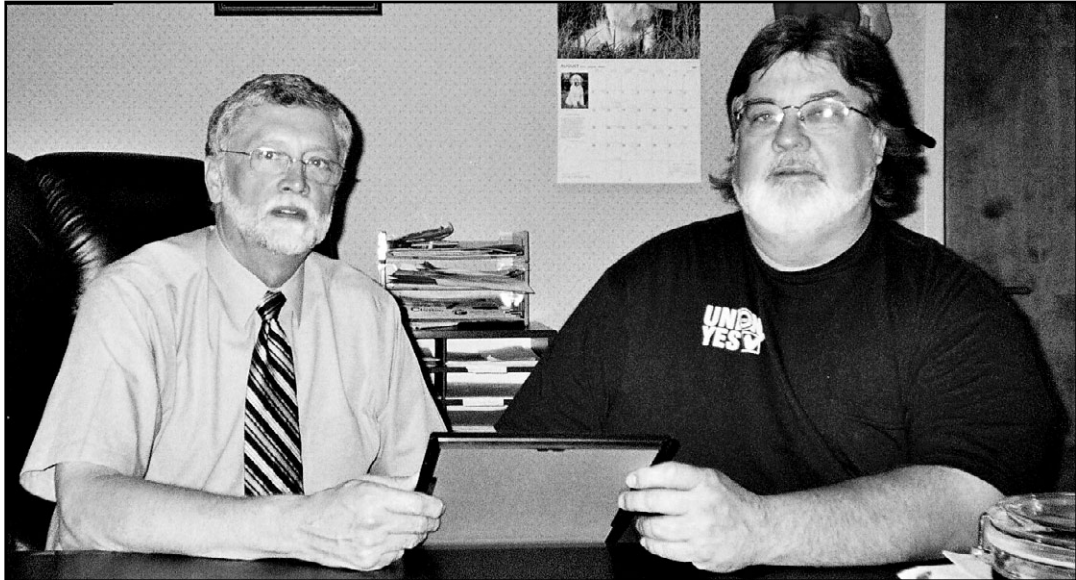

A proclamation of the City of Princeton

Whereas, The American Labor Movement has been instrumental in improving the conditions of employment and levels of compensation for all people in the United States of America; and

Whereas, Labor has played an important role in the development of the State of Indiana and the City of Princeton; and

Whereas, It is the desire of the City of Princeton to recognize the accomplishments of labor and to encourage labor and business to seek common ground and work together for the benefit of the entire community; and

Now Therefore, I, Robert J. Hurst, Mayor of the City of Princeton, Indiana do hereby proclaim the weekend of August 31 to September 3,

Labor Day Association President Charlie Wyatt meets with Princeton Mayor Robert Hurst to discuss Labor Day activities and accept his Proclamation declaring the weekend of Aug. 31 to Sept. 3 as "Labor Day Appreciation Weekend."

2007 as: "Labor Day Appreciation Weekend" in the City of Princeton, Indiana in honor of all working men and women throughout our community. 17th day of August, 2007.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set forth my hand this

Robert J. Hurst, Mayor
City of Princeton

Many thanks to all of the local businesses and their employees who work to make this area a great place to live.

In honor of their hard work and dedication, we salute the workers of America as the best in the world!
