W. J. FONTAINE.
 Alex Harper has received a paper in Stuttgart, Ark., giving an account of the robbery of the postoffice at that place. A. E. Soakland, formerly of this vicinity, was assistant master. He was gagged and and the office was relieved of in cash and $900 in stamps. Mr.
 Soakland was not found for an hour after the robbery and was almost suffered.

the management of the Oakland fair deserve much credit for the success of the week's entertainment at that place this week and in future they will continue to grow. The people of this part of Indiana have been attracted to go to county fairs and get good treatment and a moral lesson. The cutting out of all indicents and gambling was a great success and it will be rewarded with success.—Princeton Democrat. Saturday.

Alex Wallace, a deformed unfortunate who has been familiar to the people of this city and vicinity for many years, died last Thursday at the age of 56 years and 2 days. The funeral service was held Friday and the remains were laid to rest in the Forsythe cemetery. People who have known this patient, harmless unfortunate for so many years regret deeply that he has been called home.

The many friends of Miss Rose Kelley are gratified at her success in being chosen queen of the Oakland City fair, Friday. Miss Kelley takes her honors with a moderate degree of pride and says she feels very thankful to her many friends for making her success possible. She appreciates the diamond ring very highly, and it is a handsome one.—Princeton Clarion, Saturday.

Attention! Co.'s B and F 91st Ind., will hold their sixth annual reunion at Calvin R. Stone's residence near Pikeville, in Pike county on Tuesday, Sept. 9, 1902.

A large delegation of members of the Federation Labor Union, of this city, went to Evansville yesterday to participate in the Labor Day celebration. Each member wore a badge showing the name and number of his union.

The boys are having great sport this week, throwing the ball at, hanging horse-thieves, etc. The Kennedy's made an impression on the youngsters.

This is the week of the Princeton fair. Early reports indicate that it will be as successful as ever. A large crowd will go from this city Thursday.

School begins next Monday. All of the boys and girls should arrange to stick their toes under their desks on that date.

Mrs. Margaret Griffith died at an early hour Monday morning at the home of her son, John Griffith, on the west side. The funeral service was held at the late residence of the deceased at 10 o'clock this morning, being conducted by Rev. P. O. Lisman, of the M. E. church. The remains were taken to Winslow and deposited in the earth beside her husband, who died several years ago. Mrs. Griffith was aged 70 years, 4 months and 28 days. She was a highly esteemed lady and her death is deplored by many friends, who offer sympathy to the bereaved son and daughter.

City Tax Levy.
 During the rush incident to the fair last week the JOURNAL overlooked the tax assessment made by the town council and the school board last Monday evening. The levy is as follows:

- Special school fund, 40 cents on $100 and 75 cents on each poll.
- Tuition fund, 30 cents on $100 and 25 cents on each poll.
- Corporation fund, 40 cents on $100
 and 50 cents on each poll.
- Electric light fund, 15 cents on $100.
- School house bond fund, 15 cents on $100.
- Road fund, 10 cents on $100.

Total tax levy for town and school purposes, $1.50 on $100 and $1.50 on each poll.

The levy is 35 cents on the $100 lower than it was last year, and is the lowest town tax rate for ten years with the exception of the years when a large levy was made to make up a deficit created by the council in which S. S. Reed was president, and a low levy was made for election purposes only.

Good Ball Playing.
 Here is the evidence that when the Walk-Overs "line up" there is no dead timber in the outfit. As is shown by the following well distributed ballots for good playing in the August games, everybody "plays ball for sure." Following is the August vote:

- Bennett, 44; Herbert, 24; C. Klenck, 58; M. Miller, 26; Cockrum, 48; J.
 Klenck, 31; F. Miller, 140; Powers, 100. Frank Miller has, in accordance with above, been presented by the "Why" with the Walk-Over sioce prize for August.

Foreigners in Great Danger.
 Pekin, Sept. 1.—The foreign legations here are receiving reports from Szechuan province that the rebellion there is constantly spreading and that foreigners are in great danger.

Found Guilty With Intent.
 Windfall, Ind., Sept. 2.—Fred Ober-loss, who tried to shoot his sweetheart, has been found guilty of assault and battery with intent to kill.
