

CELEBRATION

MONDAY
SEPT. 7, 1936

Fairgrounds
Princeton, Ind.

Parade

The parade will move off at 10 a. m., sharp. 15 bands and Drum Corps. Floats of Every Description. Uniformed Marching Men.

Entertainment

Sidney Belmont's "Youth and Beauty" Revue—Kozak, World's Most Famous Wire Act—The Rex Family, Premier Acrobats—Adra Cooper, Character Dancer—Burvedell Twins, Dancing Xylophonists—The Six Romanoffs, in a Teeter-Board Thriller—The Knickerbocker Quartet, Harmony Singing—Balloon Ascension by Prof. Ruth, a Triple Parachute Drop—Gooding's Greater Shows, 10 Big Rides and 10 Big Shows.

Speakers

Miss Josephine Roche, America's Greatest Woman, Will Deliver the Principal Speech of the Day. Her speech will be broadcast through WGBF, Evansville, Ind., between 2 and 3 p. m. William Tracy of Chicago, general secretary of the Brick and Clay Workers Union, and Hassil Schenck, vice-president of Indiana Farm Bureau, will also be on the program.

SACRED SERVICES

Sunday Afternoon
Sept. 6th, 3 p. m.

Sermon by the Rev. Fr.
A. B. FICHTER

Pastor Holy Trinity Church,
Evansville, Ind.

Master of Ceremonies:
THE REV. M. P. KINDRED