

Maurer To Be One of Judges at Labor Day Meet

Henry J. Maurer of this city, will be one of the judges at the Southern Indiana Labor Day celebration at the Gibson county fair grounds in Princeton. A large delegation from the local unions and others will also attend.

The celebration will begin Sunday afternoon with a sacred service at 2 o'clock and will be featured with several musical numbers and sermon by Rev. Edgar Flory.

A band concert and amateur variety show will occupy the Sunday evening hour from 6:30 to 7 o'clock in which a number of Boonville musical organizations, a tap dance by Guy Freeman and Norma Helms of this city, and Rex and Jean Bessing, singing and guitar of Elberfeld, will take part.

The Monday celebration will begin at 10 o'clock with the usual mammoth parade that has always been a drawing card.

Broadcasting of the program will begin at 10:30.

Louis Austin of Terre Haute, vice-president of District No. 11, will be master of ceremonies.

The welcome address by Mayor F. C. Fowler will be followed by several talks interspersed by musical numbers and acts of various kinds as follows:

Larry Brandon, secretary of the State Farm Bureau; band concert, A. F. Whitney, free acts, Phillip F. LaFollette, revue and free acts, balloon ascension, revue and high act.
