

Labor Day Celebration At Princeton

The annual Labor Day celebration, under the auspices of the U. M. W. of A., Sub District No. 1 of District 11, will be held September 2 and 3 at the Princeton fairgrounds.

Program for Sunday: Sacred service at 2:00 p. m.; Address by Rev. Lindauer, Haubstadt; Invocation by Rev. Magness, Princeton; Singers: Freedom Quartette, Boonville; Jones' Sisters, Winslow; Stan Walters and his Singers from WSON, Henderson; Benediction by Rev. Magness.

The excellent entertainment scheduled for Monday begins at 10:00 o'clock with the big parade, Princeton and Boonville high school bands furnishing the music. Louis Austin, president of District No. 11, will act as master of ceremonies both Sunday and Monday. Following the parade the address of welcome will be given by Hon. Dr. J. G. Pepple, Mayor of Princeton; Herbert Haren, Townsend speaker, will talk at 11:00. The band concert at 1:00 will be followed by the address of the day by Hon. Charles LaFollette, 8th Congressional District. Preceding and following an address by Thos. Raney, International Board Member, Pikesville, Ky., at 2:45, there will be free acts.

At five o'clock Monday evening a horse show will be given, featuring five rings, 5-gaited professionals; 3 gaited professionals; pleasure class; pony class, and western class. Following the show, the bands will give another concert and the evening will end with free acts at 8:00.

Sidney Belmont's Victory Revue will have charge of the acts and there will be Rumble Rides on the Midway. Free admission, free parking, and plenty of free ice water.