

Lynnville Local Takes Labor Day Top Honors

Lynnville Local 9926 was winner of the loving cup at the big Labor Day parade at Princeton, Monday, on the basis of percentage of attendance and display.

Other winners of parade awards under the sponsorship of the UMW of A, the AF of L. and the CIO Affiliates Labor Day Association were:

Business floats — First prize, $60, Oakland City Business Association; second prize, $40, Kut and Kurl Beauty Shop, Princeton.

Union floats — First prize, $100, Kings Local 5584, Princeton; second prize, $50, Potter and Brumfield, Local 1459; third prize, $25, Lynnville Local 9926.

Attendance — Prize, $50, Lynnville Local 9926.

Dress uniforms — First prize, $100, Blackfoot Local 352, Winslow; second prize, $50, Lynnville Local 9926, and third prize, $25, Emge Local 172, Fort Branch.

A prize of $50 was awarded to the Blackfoot Local 352 on the basis of attendance and display with a membership of less than 100.

Mertis Underhill, who served as parade marshal extends his sincere appreciation to Warrick Sheriff, Robert E. Shelton, and to all who in any way aided and participated in the parade.

At the amateur show Sunday evening, winners were: first place, Judy Baker, Princeton, for her presentation of the Hula dance; second place, Don Skelton, Mackey, and third place, Gale Chapman and Donna Huges, Lynnville.

Warrick County winners Saturday night at the horse show held in Princeton included in the Pleasure Pony Class: Rex Neuhring, Lynnville, 4th, horse's name, Furry.

Flag Race: Gerald McKenny, 1st, horse, Kahok, owner R. A. Thompson, Lynnville.

Barrel Race: Gerald McKenny, third, horse, Kahok, R. A. Thompson, Lynnville, owner.

Rescue Race: Gerald McKenny, 1st, on Kahok, owner, R. A. Thompson, Lynnville.

Musical Chairs: Gerald McKenny, second, horse, Silver, owner, R. A. Thompson, Lynnville.