The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of white georgette with a beautiful tulle veil held in place with orange blossoms and Rhinestones, and she carried a bouquet of Brides roses. The maid of Honor wore pink georgette with a black picture hat, and carried Ophelia roses. The little flower girl wore green georgette and carried a colonial bouquet.

An all day reception was held at the home of the bride for about 100 guests. A large reception dance for a host of relatives and friends was held in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Rexing will make their home at Stacer.

LABOR DAY PLANS MEET HERE SUNDAY

A meeting of the southern Indiana Labor Day organization will be held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the Princeton C. L. U. hall. This is the final meeting for perfecting plans and arranging details for the gigantic union Labor Day celebration to be held in Princeton on Monday, Sept. 1 and a large attendance of labor union representatives is expected from throughout the "Pocket" section.
