LABOR DAY PLANS DISCUSSED AT SPURGEON SUNDAY

Plans for the gigantic southern Indiana union Labor Day celebration to be held in Princeton on Monday, Sept. 1, were furthered at a meeting of union representatives, Sunday afternoon at Spurgeon, Pike county.

Despite the hot weather, 22 local unions were represented at the meeting. The next meeting will be held at Winslow on Sunday, July 27.

Various committees are hard at work on plans for the big celebration. Noted speakers have been secured, a number of bands will participate in the big parade and there will be plenty of entertainment features.
