GIBSON COUNTY MEN ELECTED TO CHURCH OFFICES

ELECTED AT ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF SOUTHWESTERN INDIANAN CHRISTIAN CHURCHES AT BETHSAIDA CHURCH.

MT. VERNON, Ind., Sept. 5.—(Special)—Officers elected at the closing session of the annual conference of the Southwestern Indiana Christian Churches at the Bethsaida Church, near Stewartsville, were as follows:

Floyd Oursler, Cynthiana publisher, conference president; Elmer Carter, Haulstadt, vice-president; Arlene Lowe, Cynthiana, secretary; Charles Epperson, Haulstadt, treasurer; President Oursler, delegate to the state conference, and J. R. Emerson, Cynthiana, I. N. Carter, Cynthiana, D. A. Epperson, Haulstadt, Julius Wiggers, Evansville, and Elvis Anderson, of Bethsaida congregation, members of the Presbytery.

Ten ministers attended the conference. J. C. Gwaltney, of New Liberty, was licensed to preach and Rev. Emmert, new Cynthiana pastor, was received into the conference.

EXCELLENT PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR ENTERTAINMENT—STARTING WITH GREAT PARADE THROUGH BUSINESS SECTION.

With the sun breaking through early morning clouds, giving prospect of good weather for the day, hundreds of Princeton and Gibson county citizens left early Monday for Washington where starting at 10 o'clock one of the largest Labor Day celebrations yet staged by the Southern Indiana Labor Day Association was expected to be held.

Committees working on plans for the occasion, have left nothing undone to insure the thousands who will attend throughout the day, plenty of entertainment.

Starting with the parade at 10 o'clock, through the business section of Washington and disbanding at East-side Park, a program including speeches by prominent men, several free acts, band concerts, balloon ascension and fireworks at night were scheduled.

Princeton high school band under direction of Prof. Arthur L. Drago, participated in the parade in addition to five other musical organizations.

A sacred concert was held at the park Sunday afternoon and was largely attended.

Following is the complete program: Chairman of the Day, Mayor John W. McCarty.

10:00 A.M.—Parade leaving downtown district, passing judges' stand.

Music, Royal Farm Quartette.

11:00 A.M.—Address of Welcome, Mayor John W. McCarty.

11:45 A.M.—Address, M. Cliff Townsend, state director of organization, Indiana Farm Bureau.

WOMAN INJURED AS AUTOS CRASH ON MAIN STREET

James McReynolds reported at police headquarters that while driving north in south Main street about 7 o'clock Sunday evening his automobile was struck by a car driven by Frank Turber, as the latter made a left turn out of a filling station driveway at Kentucky and Main streets.

According to the report, Laura Crow, 52, Evansville, riding in the McReynolds car, sustained a badly cut arm.

Miss Mildred Smith will leave Tuesday for Urbana, Ill., to resume her studies at the University of Illinois, after spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Smith, in south Main street.

Mrs. J. M. Bratton and daughter, Miss Irma, of Ft. Branch, were Saturday visitors in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCarty and daughter, and Mrs. Gresham Endicott, of Ft. Branch, were recent visitors in Princeton.

Mrs. Raq Rogers spent Thursday in Oakland City. She was accompanied there by Mrs. Mary Jenkins, who will visit her daughter, Mrs. Lillian Cochran.

Mr. and Mrs. John Douglas, who have been visiting relatives and friends in this city, returned Friday to their home in Chicago.

Mrs. Homer Heathman and daughter, Hazel Ferno, of Oakland City, were here Friday enroute to Indianapolis to visit the guest of Mrs. Arthur Bennett.

CITY COUNCIL TO MEET; ADJOURN

The city council will meet for a short session tonight (Monday) at the city building, according to City Clerk Paul Daugherty, but will probably adjourn until Tuesday night. Final action on the Tax Levy for the City of Princeton is expected to be taken at this meeting.

OFFICES CLOSED IN COURT HOUSE

All offices in the court house except that of Clerk Charles Chappelle, were closed Monday, in observance of the
