ALL IN READINESS FOR THE BIG FAIR

The fair ground is a busy scene and hundreds of people will visit the grounds tomorrow and Monday. The events will start off with Tuesday.

Secretary Smith and other officials are head over heels in the usual big rush of entries, placing concessions on the grounds, etc. Every indication points to more interest and better offerings than for a number of years, versary falls later than November 15, 1923, can not be accepted in the schools this year. Children who have reached the age of seven must attend school regularly.

Patrons are kindly asked to govern themselves accordingly regarding their children so the children of Fort Branch and Upton township may obtain every advantage obtained by regularity in attendance.

MONDAY TO BE OBSERVED AS A FULL HOLIDAY

Monday, Labor Day, will be observed as a holiday in Princeton, and all over the country. Most business houses will be closed all day and practically all labor will be suspended as a tribute to "labor's day."

No special celebrations have been announced for this vicinity. Many here will spend the day at the fair grounds watching the preparations for the Gibson county fair.

LABOR DAY EDITION

In observance of Labor Day, the Daily Democrat will be issued before noon Monday. Advertisers and contributors will please take note of this.

All advertisements intended for Monday's paper must be in by Saturday evening.

GIBSON FAIR TO HAVE PLENTY OF BALLOON SPORT

SOMETHING NO FAIR IN THIS PART OF COUNTRY HAS HAD THIS YEAR

Prof. Skiver to Make Multiple Parachute Leaps, Six on One Day and Five on Two Other Days—Means Spectacular Entertainment

(By Publicity Director)

During practically the entire history of the Great and Only Gibson county fair the association has always felt that a balloon was a real, vital necessity for a good fair.

Fairs have so far been held at Henderson, and Uniontown Kentucky, at Petersburg, New Harmony, Rockport and Boonville, the fair which claims to be the "State fair of Southern Indiana," and yet none of them has had
