The fair grounds proper has begun and several concessions were on the grounds today ready for the first fair business. Several local persons who maintain their own stands from year to year have painted their buildings and placed all in excellent shape for the fair opening. The usual Sunday afternoon throng is expected as a number of concessions will be in operation and others will be in process of erection. The carnival company and other feature attractions are expected to arrive during Sunday and will be on the grounds and open on Tuesday.

DEATHS

CHARLES W. MUELLER

Word has been received here of the death of Charles W. Mueller, age 62 years, formerly of this city, whose death occurred Friday morning at his home 1408 east Michigan street.
