LABOR DAY MAY END COAL STRIKE

UNION OFFICIALS BELIEVE THE MEN WILL RETURN TO WORK AFTER LABOR DAY

(By United Press)
 SCRANTON, Pa., (Sept. 4.—That the peak in the unauthorized strike of the anthracite coal miners has been reached was the opinion of the operators and United Mine Workers' officials here today. It is expected by these officials that after Labor Day many of the men now idle will return to work.
 According to an estimate, 100,000 men have left their work in the call of the insurgent strikers.

 and Mrs. John Reavis, Princeton.
 Future home, Princeton.

"Regardless of demas, the candidate declared. "I repeat the charge and will continue to press that charge until the second of November."

Asking why business interests should seek an advantage, the Democratic candidate repeated assertions that banking interests were seeking to change the federal reserve act, industrial interests trying to "buy the use of the bayonet in strikes," and that the great packing interests were opposing government regulation of cold storage.

In closing his Michigan tour last night, Governor Cox, who did not reach here until 9:30 Friday morning, repeated former arguments for the league and also attacks on the "Senate oligarchy." He paid a tribute to the presiding officers, to Mrs. G. W.
 Clark, of the local Woman Voters' league, who had a husband and two sons in the war.

Governor Cox was joined here by F.
 E. Doremus, former Michigan congressman, and now manager of the Democratic headquarters in Chicago.

COURT OF INQUIRY WILL BE CONVENE

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—A na-court of inquiry will be called at to investigate the accident to submarine S-5, Secretary Daniels announced today. Daniels pointed that convening of the court of inquiry was a matter of form in such mishaps and should not be construed as a criticism of the office and crew of the submarine.
