DR. STRATON WILL HIRE A HALL AND

SMITH CONTROVERSY

NEW YORK, Aug. 15 -(UP) -The widely advertised "debate" between the Rev. Dr. John Roach Straton, the fighting fundamentalist, and Gov. Acfred E. Smith, the Democratic candidate for president appeared today to have gone into a tailspin and cracked

The preacher is determined, however to raise the issue again on the wings of publicity and keep it flying, even to the extent of hiring a big hall and repeating before a bigger audience his charge that Governor Smith is America's "deadliest foe" of moral progress and political wisdom.

When Smith declined to answer the attack anywhere except in Calvary Baptist church, from whose pulpit the preacher attacked him, Straton said that Smith was "running away from

To the Governor's statement that 'the matter is closed" unless Straton's church is the scene of the "debate," Straton replied that he would "hire a hall" and repeat his charges.

MORE PLANS ARE MADE FOR LABOR DAY CELEBRATION

BANDS HIRED AND SPEAKERS CHOSEN- PETERSBURG BAND WILL PLAY CONCERTS DURING THE DAY

Plans for Labor Day celebration here, September 3, took definite shape at the meeting held Tuesday night at the Central Labor Union hall at Oakland City and much business was transacted.

Two bands were hired Tuesday night, the Patoka Boys' Community band and the Petersburg band. The latter will play the concert at the fair ground during the day.

All business men and merchants who contemplate placing floats in the parade are asked to communicate with Henry Fritz, Grand Marshal.

Amplifiers will be installed in the amphitheatre so that all will be able to hear the program. It is planned to have a motion picture company take pictures of the parade.

A meeting of all parade captains of the various organizations will be held Sunday morning. August 26, at the C .L. U. hall in this city for the drawing of positions in the parade.

Two speakers of the three or more to be chosen have been selected. They are Leon Worthall, Indianapolis, organizer for the International Barbers Union, and William H. Settle, head of the Indiana Farm Bureau.
