The miners' army is equipped with rifles, revolvers and machine guns. Stores have been robbed, telephone lines torn down and trains commandeered to carry many miners. The governor declares the state can not cope with the situation.

FT. BRANCH PLANS BIG CELEBRATION ON LABOR DAY

FT. BRANCH, Aug. 25.—(Special)—Fort Branch will have a Labor Day celebration.

The Presbyterian church is planning for a big barbecue and have arranged a program of a variety of contests in racing, games, and so forth.

The Elks ball team of Princeton will play our Studebakers in the afternoon.

A Princeton Brass Band with a flock of laughing trombones will root for the Elks in this game, so our manager Jones already admits defeat. After winning the game for the Elks the band will celebrate with a concert up town in the "loop" district. People who do not plan to spend Labor Day in Fort Branch this year will make a mistake they will always regret. Even if you have "laid out" some work for that day—you can't accomplish much with all your neighbors celebrating. It's a holi-day and holi-night—a fun fest with plenty of "fun" and plenty of "fest" to go around. Remind yourselves that it won't do to take life too seriously and appoint this day as the day to "cut-loose." If you're old—be a youngster again, and if you're a youngster be a baby again—it takes all kinds to make as big a celebration as this is going to be.

Throw away your hammer and pick up a horn and blow in early the fifth Sept. morn. Mr. Louis Brown of Decker, Indiana, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Lucy Brown. Mrs. Manning Taylor, of Akron, Ohio, is in the city visiting relatives for two weeks. Lieut. H. D. Reed and wife of Camp Knox, Ky., are in the city visiting his parents. Lieut. Reed has been assigned a post in the Philippine Islands and expects to leave for Manila some time in October. Rev. A. C. DeForest of Holland, Ill., and Miss Lorena Stocking of Pittsburgh, Pa., are the guests of A. Rodeman for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. John Swain of Princeton were in the city Wednesday advertising the public sale on Mr. W. H. Dugan's farm west of Princeton. Mrs. Louise Genung and family had as their guests Wednesday, Mr. J. B. Davis, Misses Kate and Ella Walker of Poseyville, Mrs. S. E. Dalley of Evansville and Mr. Allen Dalley of Manhattan, Kansas.

The united action of these committees if they are successful in accomplishing their purpose, will win the still greater favor in the eyes of the motoring public.
