

Tue Aug 28, 1928

68yr No 206

PD Democrat

Front Page

TONIGHT AT HEADQUARTERS

ic organization meeting. and women, and to which ommitteemen and women untly are especially in- held at 7:30 this (Tuesday) evening at Democratic head-quarters, in the Wirtz building, west Broadway, this city.

Mrs. A. P. Flynn, Logansport, Democratic state woman chairman, will address the meeting, on her visit here in connection with a tour of southern Indiana. Everyone should hear Mrs. Flynn's discussion, and a large attendance is urged, particularly from those who are interested in Democratic success at the November election.

Mrs. John H. Hitch, this city, woman's Democratic district chairman, has arranged the meeting.

ATTEND ROGERS BRIDGE OPENING

A number of Princeton people attended the ceremonies in connection with formal opening of the Rogers bridge over White river near Petersburg, Tuesday. Among those who attended from this city were Thomas Nash, Mayor W. S. Eunes, Alfred M. Johnson, Fred R. Ewing, Dr. A. H. Rhodes, S. T. Fisher and others. The ceremonies opened at 11 a. m.

assailant: Joe Hill, about 27 years of age; height, 5 feet 3 inches; hair and eyes brown; usually wears large felt hat. Joe Hill is said to have relatives in this city.

Following the attack, in which Seals sustained a number of knife wounds, he was taken to Mt. Carmel for treatment and then to an Evansville hospital, it was stated.

Reports are the attack at the dance occurred late in the evening after Knox county officials had left the place. A quarrel is said to have ensued between Seals and Hill, with the result that Hill is alleged to have drawn a knife and stabbed Seals.

Officers here Tuesday had no information regarding the whereabouts of Hill and likewise had no definite word of any kind from Knox county authorities. The local officers as yet have received no warrant in connection with the affair.

HORSESHOE CONTEST HERE LABOR DAY

One of the features of the big Labor Day program at the Gibson county fairgrounds next Monday afternoon will be a horseshoe pitching contest. Four different cash prizes are being offered. James Crandall is in charge of this entertainment feature and he asks that everyone desiring to enter the contest get in touch with him at the horseshoe pitching court at 1:30 p. m. Labor Day.

MISSING AIRMAN

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 28 — (U) —Lient. Edwin M. Ronne, superintendent of Buffalo Airport, and M. Merrill, manager of the Curtiss Fly Service, have been missing since they took off for New York at 4 P. M. yesterday in the Falcon airplane of Charles A. Lindbergh.

Lindbergh's plane had been here for repairs, and Merrill came Buffalo to get it.

Officials at the airport express fears for the flyers' safety, and co-operating with Long Island fields in a search for them.

RAILROADS REACH PAY AND WORKING RULES AGREEMENT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28 —(UP) Chairman Winslow of the Federal Board of Mediation announced today that Conductors, Trainmen and Railroad men of the Western Territory reached an agreement on rates of pay and working rules. This probably ended a danger of a threatened strike, it is believed. The Association of General Committees in the Western territory must ratify the agreement, full which the dispute "will be treated in accordance with the law," Winslow stated.

was sought on s, however, failed made on the floor sidetrack the reso- ut in the resolu- s too was halted ght the resolution delegates.

TALK GARY AT LUNCHEON

eting of Rotary was given by he Electra Radio d Television by interesting experi- in Chicago and ere this new in- tested out by the ved the talk very evision is yet in ge. Mr. Karras ist as certain as great inventions, ere present.