

Tue Sept 1, 1931
 71 yr No 219
 P D Democrat
 Front Page

hundreds of other cheering people. The new ocean eyehound, majestic as it slides into its element, will be ready to enter the New York-Havre run early next Sunday. It is forecast.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR GREAT LABOR DAY CELEBRATION

MOST EXTENSIVE PROGRAM EVER ARRANGED FOR ALL DAY AND EVENING—GREAT MORNING PARADE—SACRED CONCERT SUNDAY P. M.

With exception of arranging a few minor details, plans have been completed by the Southern Indiana Labor Day Association for the gigantic Union Labor Day celebration to be held in Princeton next Monday, Sept. 7.

Officials of the association want it distinctly understood that the entire day and night program is absolutely free to the public. There will be no admission charge at the gate, all vehicle parking space and the amphitheater are free, along with plenty of good drinking water and shade. The entire speaking and entertainment program, which is of vast proportions, is entirely free to everyone.

The celebration will be ushered in with a sacred concert and religious service next Sunday afternoon, Sept. 6, in the fair grounds amphitheater. A band will play a sacred concert, the Roundhouse quartet of Atlanta, Ga., will sing religious numbers, and Dr. L. C. Jeffrey, pastor of the First M. E. church, this city, will be the speaker. Everyone is invited and urged to attend this service.

Labor Day itself will actually get under way Monday morning, with the great street parade at 10 o'clock. The line will have six big divisions, moving through the principal streets of the city, then to the fair grounds and around the track, where the thousands may view the parade and where judges will select displays for cash prizes. With the addition of Washington, Ind., labor unions, including shopcrafts, this year, and with many floats and other displays being built, this parade will without doubt be the finest and greatest in every way that has been held in Princeton or this entire section.

Due to the parade moving around the track and the fact that a moving picture man will film the line from a moving car, two sections of fence are to be removed, it is announced, in order to handle the crowds.

The fair grounds program will include band concert throughout the afternoon and evening, speeches by Mr. Cliff Townsend, for the farmers;

JOYCE BARN IS DESTROYED BY AFTERNOON FIRE

BLAZE HAD BIG HEADWAY IN UPPER PART OF STRUCTURE WHEN DISCOVERED—FIREMEN ANSWER CALL

The large barn on the Ed Joyce farm, three miles southwest of the city, was completely destroyed by fire, discovered at 1:30 Tuesday afternoon.

The blaze was believed to have originated from either defective wiring or spontaneous combustion.

In the barn loft were stored keepsakes and various other articles which were destroyed. There was no hay in the barn, Mrs. Joyce said.

The blaze was discovered by Mrs. Joyce as she left the residence of a tenant, W. H. Strawn, some distance east of the barn. Mrs. Joyce said that the roof, near the eastern end of the barn, was afire at that time. She immediately notified fire department headquarters here. The pumper made the run, but firemen could be of little assistance, due to the great headway, practically half of the structure being ablaze when they reached scene. The lower part of the walls of the building are of brick and the entire upper part of frame construction.

The barn, best known as the Joyce Barn, had concrete floor and was one of the most modern in this vicinity. During the past several years, it had been the scene of big dances and was in use on numerous other gala occasions.

The blaze could be seen for miles and a throng of spectators gathered at the scene. Electric linemen were busy.

Although not required to file reports, due to the fire being in the rural section, Fire Chief Dale Ford estimated that the loss would be in the neighborhood of $10,000. The lower floor of the structure was equipped with fountain, stage and other conveniences.

ER
 cloudy with
 night and pos-
 ver Wednesday and central portion Wed-
 5:20.
 —JOPLIN.
 R
 T INDIES
 220 east Mon-
 leave Tuesday
 ty, where she ing for Aruba.
 join Mr. Wilith the Stand-vania, for an quire about 12
 by steamer.
 9 miles off the merica. Mr.
 aba for more merly Miss r of Mr. and

SPLENDID PROGRAM FOR TRUSTEES DAY AT INSTITUTE

EXCELLENT MUSIC UNDER MISS YOUNG'S DIRECTION — LARGE ATTENDANCE — INSTITUTE CLOSES WEDNESDAY NOON.

Tuesday was Trustees Day at the Gibson County Teachers Institute, being held in Princeton High School auditorium and splendid programs featured the morning and afternoon sessions. The attendance was unusually large, with many visitors from Princeton and vicinity.

Ross F. Lockridge, author and lecturer of Bloomington, Ind., and Noah Belliard, master make-up artist of Daton, Mich., were the instructors at both sessions.

Rev. Ford Porter, pastor of the First Baptist church, conducted the morning devotional.

The musical program, Miss Nellie Young in charge, included chorus singing at 10 a. m., which was a special feature, Miss Anna Strain taking the solo parts, with the entire institute responding in singing the chorus and refrain of patriotic and popular songs. This was heartily entered into and much enjoyed and was pronounced the

RECOVERED GUN WAS STOLEN FROM FT. BRANCH OFFICE

ESTABLISHED THAT REVOLVER TAKEN FROM FLOYD HARVEY AT SULLIVAN BELONGED TO

LONGS DIRECTION — LARGE ATTENDANCE — INSTITUTE CLOSING WEDNESDAY NOON.

Tuesday was Trustees Day at the Gibson County Teachers Institute, being held in Princeton High School auditorium and splendid programs featured the morning and afternoon sessions. The attendance was unusually large, with many visitors from Princeton and vicinity.

Miss F. Lockridge, author and teacher of Bloomington, Ind., and Noah Bartz, master make-up artist of Detroit, Mich., were the instructors at the sessions.

Rev. Ford Porter, pastor of the First Baptist church, conducted the morning devotional.

The musical program, Miss Nellie King in charge, included chorus singing at 10 a. m., which was a special feature, Miss Anna Strain taking the lead parts, with the entire institute assisting in singing the chorus and a number of patriotic and popular songs. The program was heartily entered into and enjoyed and was pronounced the best institute singing here in years.

At 1 P. M. Dr. C. Allen Brink, this city, delighted his hearers with two tone solos. The 2:15 program was given by Ft. Branch talent. Mrs. E. J. Dwyer gave a soprano solo, Charles Dwyer gave a saxophone solo, with Walter Polk accompanist. The Ft. Branch music received much praise. Alva Levi, this city, gave a humorous and entertaining reading during the afternoon.

The institute will close Wednesday afternoon, with the afternoon devoted to fellowship and other organization meetings.

Following is the Wednesday morning program:

- 8:30-9:00—Opening exercise.
- 9:00-9:30—Phillip Zoercher.
- 9:30-9:50—C. M. East, county agricultural agent.
- 9:50-10:10—Genevieve Shaw, county cross nurse.
- 10:10-10:25—Rest.
- 10:25-10:40—Music.
- 10:40-11:00—Business session.
- 11:00-11:30—George C. Cole, state superintendent.

Everyone is invited and urged to attend this service.

Labor Day itself will actually get underway Monday morning, with the great street parade at 10 o'clock. The line will have six big divisions, moving through the principal streets of the city, then to the fair grounds and around the track, where the thousands may view the parade and where judges will select displays for cash prizes. With the addition of Washington, Ind., labor unions, including shopcrafts, this year, and with many floats and other displays being built, this parade will without doubt be the finest and greatest in every way that has been held in Princeton or this entire section.

Due to the parade moving around the track and the fact that a moving picture man will film the line from a moving car, two sections of fence are to be removed. It is announced, in order to handle the crowds.

The fair grounds program will include band concert throughout the afternoon and evening, speeches by M. Cliff Townsend, for the farmers; Mayor John W. McCarthy, of Washington, Ind., and others; six high class free acts, the colored Jug band from radio station WHAS, Louisville, Ky.; balloon ascension, tug-o-war between Princeton and Washington shopcrafts teams, with 26 rounds boxing show at night on the free attraction platform, in addition to concerts and free acts. There will not be a dull moment throughout the day and evening.

The Labor Day Association has contracted Hoosier State Shows, with all concessions, shows and rides, for the midway attractions. In addition, practically all concessions which were on the grounds during the fair last week, are remaining for Labor Day. There is thus every indication, with good weather conditions, that the celebration will be by far the greatest ever held in this section of the country.

burn, had concrete floor and was one of the most modern in this vicinity. During the past several years, it had been the scene of big dances and was in use on numerous other gala occasions.

The blaze could be seen for miles and a throng of spectators gathered at the scene. Electric linemen were busy.

Although not required to file reports, due to the fire being in the rural section, Fire Chief Dale Ford estimated that the loss would be in the neighborhood of $10,000. The lower floor of the structure was equipped with fountain, stage and other conveniences.

RECOVERED GUN WAS STOLEN FROM FT. BRANCH OFFICE

ESTABLISHED THAT REVOLVER TAKEN FROM FLOYD HARVEY AT SULLIVAN BELONGED TO GIBSON COUNTY BANKERS PROTECTIVE BODY.

Frank M. Harris, this city, secretary of the Gibson County Bankers Protective Association, stated Tuesday that a .45-caliber Colt revolver, which was taken from Floyd Harvey following a burglary at Sullivan recently, was the property of the county association and was stolen on the night of July 2 from the Wilkinson Lumber Co. office in Ft. Branch.

Mr. Harris has received from the Indiana Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation, a letter stating that it had been established from the war department at Washington, D. C., that the revolver had been obtained by the Gibson County Bankers Protective Association from the Rock Island, Ill., arsenal.

Harvey, a former Princeton resident, was arrested at Sullivan on a burglary charge and was sentenced there a short time ago. According to authorities, he had the revolver in his possession and steps were then taken to clearly identify the

SUIT REMOVED TO FEDERAL COURT