Tremendous Crowd Attends Greatest Labor Day Celebration Here

Robt. Jacobus Killed On Slab Near Hazleton

CORONER K. S. STRICKLAND CONDUCTING INQUIRY INTO PROMINENT FARMER'S DEATH—STRUCK BY CAR, RUN OVER BY ANOTHER.

Dr. Karl S. Strickland, of Owensville, Gibson county coroner, in the city Tuesday, informed The Daily Democrat that he is continuing his inquiry into the death of Robert Jacobus, 65, prominent farmer of near Hazleton, who was killed about 6:00 o'clock Monday evening when struck on highway 41 by a car driven by Clarence K. Andreae, Evansville city, councilman.

The coroner declared that reports in an Evansville newspaper quoting him as exonerating Andreae of all blame were far-fetched. Dr. Strickland said that he was taking testimony of witnesses and had not completed his inquiry.

Mr. Jacobus had returned to his rural home from the Labor Day celebration in Princeton and was walking across the concrete highway to the car of his son-in-law, Otto Witsman, when hit by the Andreae car, south bound. Mr. Jacobus's skull was fractured. He died while being taken into his home. According to reports, certified by witnesses giving testimony to the coroner, Mr. Jacobus was watching a north bound car when hit by the Andreae machine.

Coroner Strickland said evidence showed that Mr. Jacobus was thrown near the center of the highway by the Andreae car and the body was run over by Lloyd Mosbey, Princeton young man. Coroner Strickland said Tuesday that he had the testimony of Mosbey that he (Mosbey) struck the body before he was able to stop, immediately after Mr. Jacobus was hit by the Evansville machine.

Funeral arrangements for Mr. Jacobus have not been announced, pending word from relatives. He is survived by the widow, six daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Witsman, Mrs. James Lashbrook, of Mt. Carmel, Ill.; Mrs. Ruth Morton, of Evansville; Mrs. Blanche Reneer, of Akron, Ohio; Misses Marie and Dorothy Jacobus, of Hazleton; two sons, Robert Jr., of Memence, Ill., and Herschel, of

GIGANTIC MORNING PARADE, WITH ELABORATE ALL DAY AND EVENING PROGRAM AT FAIR GROUNDS.

A tremendous crowd, variously estimated up to 40,000 and the greatest outpouring of people ever seen in the Gibson County Fair grounds, was in attendance here Monday at the biggest and best Labor Day celebration ever held in this entire section. Thousands banked all streets along the route of the gigantic morning parade, jammed the big amphitheater and lined the fences, and throughout the afternoon and evening thronged the fair grounds for the elaborate program. All available parking space in the grounds was taken up and hundreds of other cars were on grounds in vicinity of the fair grounds.

The union-Labor-Day program opened with a morning feature, the wonderful parade of labor unions, farm bureau and business house representations. H. J. Fritz, grand marshal of the parade, and his assistants had all delegations in their places early and at the stroke of 11, the line of march had reached the public square. The parade moved north in Main to Broadway, west to Hart, north to State, east to Main, north to Spruce, west into the fair grounds and around the track for judging the various prizes offered. The prize list is given elsewhere in this paper.

Particularly noticeable in this pageant were the exceptionally large number of marchers, various unions having greater percent of their membership in line. Enos local No. 5179, with float consisting of a load of coal, had 98 2/3% of their local union membership in line, they, with the other delegations, presenting a fine appearance.

Parade Formation

H. J. Fritz, parade marshal; V. W. Compton and Oscar Rinehart, assistants, mounted, led the parade, with the Petersburg band, C. L. U. float and the speakers and officials following in several cars. Miners locals had the first division, and the other big delegations had various divisions in order: Barbers, farmers, building trades, shoe crafts and business house floats. Enos miners were led by the Spurgeon (Pike county) band. Patoka Community band likewise had a prominent place in the line.

Many beautiful floats were in line.

representing various industries and business establishments. Most of those on foot marched four abreast and carried American flags. An engine, two coal cars and a caboose, built by the shop crafts and with a big marching delegation, scored a real hit, as did the prize-winning floats. Deserving of especial mention was the Fowler bakery float, consisting of a gigantic replica of a loaf of bread, and the Allen A. Wilkinson Lumber Co., on which was built an up-to-date bungalow.

In the winning displays of union made goods on the public square, Welton & Criswell Co. won the prize on the window, splendidly arranged by George Boyles.

Fair Grounds Program

Madman's Million Dollar Band, here for the fair week engagement, entertained the uptown crowds with a concert in the court yard prior to the parade. The band likewise played a concert in the fair grounds and then played for the free acts until 4:00 o'clock. A program of free acts was held on the platform in front of the amphitheater. Among the best acts was an animal circus in a ring on the stage, high diver and other features.

Other Features

A tug of war on the race track between teams of farmers and miners was declared a tie. Each team won a pull and the third was pronounced a tie, when neither team was able to make a pull of any distance. This was a splendid entertainment feature.

The evening program, as stated elsewhere, included concert by the Petersterg band, a splendid musical organization; boxing and wrestling card, topped off with a beautiful fireworks display of bombs, pyrotechnics and set pieces, at 11:00 o'clock. Thousands remained in the grounds until the last.

Address Given

After the parade had disbanded in the fair grounds, T. N. Taylor, president of the state federation of labor; James Terry, vice-president of District No. 11, United Mine Workers of America, and Mayor W. S. Ennes of Princeton spoke. Opening the afternoon program, Leon Worthall, editor of the Barbers Journal, a splendid orator, delivered an address on labor and the farmers. Judge Claude A. During the afternoon and evening a colored male quartet rendered fine programs of songs from the free acts stage. The crowd brought them back to repeated encores. This feature, along with hand numbers and speeches, were carried to the crowds over the amphitheater and in the grounds by amplifiers, installed by Illinois Radio Engineers.

Throughout the day and evening and with the immense traffic, no accidents of a serious nature were reported. Fair grounds policemen, special Labor Day traffic men and others kept the traffic moving.

UNDER 3,000 POUNDS ENFOR MORNING CON-"GREAT AND ONLY" TODAY WITH BIG PRO-

WRESTLING AND BOXING DELIGHT MONSTER CROWD

TWO GRAPPLING MATCHES, 20 ROUNDS OF LEATHER THROWING AND BATTLE ROYAL HELD MONDAY NIGHT.

The big feature of the Labor Day program at the Gibson County Fair grounds was a wrestling and boxing card, the best ever brought to this city, held Monday night on the free acts stage in front of the amphitheater. W. N. Norcross promoted the card, with Harry Gregg, Muncie, Ind., handling the fistie encounters and Jack Bentley, boxer, as the wrestling official.

Both grappling matches went the full three falls before being decided on two falls out of three. On the first, Joe Fishman and Don Zemlock, at 140 pounds, staged a whiz-bang match, Fishman winning the first fall and Zemlock the other two. In the other "ear-twisting" affair, T. B. Critchfield won over Wilfred Harrison, Critchfield taking the first and third falls and Harrison the second. This wrestling program went off in fine style and kept the crowd immensely interested.

The boxing card was of top-notch caliber. Joe Lynn, Princeton's pride, and Johnny Nasser, of Terre Haute, both at 120 pounds, battled 6 rounds to a draw, but Lynn came through and using his left to good advantage, pulled out in the 5th and 6th. It was the best bout on the card.

Lon Lovelace, Terre Haute, and Dick Zimmerman, Mt. Carmel, Ill., 130 pounds, fought 6 rounds to a draw. Lovelace didn't appear to be in the best of shape. The feature 8-round bout found the ever popular Jack Bentley, Washington, Ind., pug, outpointing "Chungy" Ewing throughout the scrap. Although Ewing had nearly 30 pounds weight advantage, Bentley showed that he knew worlds more of the mitt game. Both were considerably weakened in the final round. Ewing weighed 170 pounds and Bentley 147 1/2.

The battle royal was between four colored boxers of Terre Haute, when some of the Princeton colored boys couldn't be induced to step into the ring. One of the pugs was knocked out early in the fray, a big fellow, worn down, quit, and John Porter and Earl Jones continued the scrap. After they had fought a length of time the fight was declared a draw between Porter and Jones. The battle royal, as usual, kept the crowd in an uproar and leather flew thick and fast.

The 12th annual Gibson county fair opened officially Tuesday with a good attendance that is boding fair to make this year's "Great and Only" one of the best in point of attendance, as well as every other features.

Tuesday was Sunday school children's day, an annual observance, with all children under 15 years of age being admitted free. Bachman's Million Dollar band is giving the delightful programs afternoon and evening; free acts were all being staged in the afternoon, with balloon ascension and multiple parachute leaps scheduled for 5 P. M. and race program including 2:45 trot and 2:45 pace during the afternoon.

Fireworks Tonight

Tuesday night at 8 o'clock the first of the big fireworks programs will be given with pyrotechnic and set pieces in the center ring. Another of the fine displays will be given Friday night. Free acts, of course, along with band concert, will be staged Tuesday night and all other nights of the week.

One of the interesting features of the week is the team pulling contest to be conducted at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning on the race track in front of the amphitheater under direction of County Agent Jerry East. Wednesday's contest is for teams weighing under 3,000 pounds. At 10 o'clock Friday morning, a team pulling contest for teams weighing 3,000 pounds and over will be held. These contests last year proved a fine feature and attracted throngs of spectators.

As given elsewhere in this issue, a full racing program is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, along with the many other attractions. Wednesday night, the first of the night running races will be held, with the half and five-eighths mile dashes. As in former years, the track is especially lighted for these night races.

Awarding committees will begin work in the bulls and pens Wednesday morning and horses and cattle will be shown on the track in front of the amphitheater.

A great crowd is expected Tuesday night, in view of the gorgeous fireworks display arranged and the many popular attractions.

Miss Pauline Blinback after spending the past two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Hester Blinback and family, returned to Indianapolis Tuesday. She was accompanied by Miss Olive Scott who was here for the week end.

CARS COLLIDE IN CHURCH YARD SOUTH OF CITY

Automobiles driven by James W. Powell, 529 west State street, this city, and P. N. Killebrew, colored, 1219 west Iowa street, Evansville, collided at Epiphany church, four miles south of Princeton, Monday afternoon about 4:00 o'clock, causing considerable damage to the fronts of both cars. No one was injured.

According to Mr. Powell, who was driving north, the accident occurred when Killebrew was driving south from one side of the road to the other, and in order to avoid a crash, he (Powell) drove his car to the left into the church yard. Killebrew also drove into the yard, Powell said, and crashed into his car. Both machines were brought to a local garage for repairs.

The accident was reported at police headquarters by Powell.

Robt. Jacobus Killed On Slab Near Hazleton

CORONER K. S. STRICKLAND CONDUCTING INQUIRY INTO PROMINENT FARMER'S DEATH
 —STRUCK BY CAR, RUN OVER BY ANOTHER.

Dr. Karl S. Strickland, of Owensville, Gibson county coroner, in the city Tuesday, informed The Daily Democrat that he is continuing his inquiry into the death of Robert Jacobus, 65, prominent farmer of near Hazleton, who was killed about 6:00 o'clock Monday evening when struck on highway 41 by a car driven by Clarence K. Andreae, Evansville city councilman.

The coroner declared that reports in an Evansville newspaper quoting him as exonerating Andreae of all blame were far-fetched. Dr. Strickland said that he was taking testimony of witnesses and had not completed his inquiry.

Mr. Jacobus had returned to his rural home from the Labor Day celebration in Princeton and was walking across the concrete highway to the car of his son-in-law, Otto Witsman, when hit by the Andreae car, south bound. Mr. Jacobus's skull was fractured. He died while being taken into his home. According to reports, certified by witnesses giving testimony to the coroner, Mr. Jacobus was watching a north bound car when hit by the Andreae machine.

Coroner Strickland said evidence showed that Mr. Jacobus was thrown near the center of the highway by the Andreae car and the body was run over by Lloyd Mosbey, Princeton young man. Coroner Strickland said Tuesday that he had the testimony of Mosbey that he (Mosbey) struck the body before he was able to stop, immediately after Mr. Jacobus was hit by the Evansville machine.

PRINCETON YOUNG MAN MAKES SKETCHES FOR FIREWORKS SET PIECES

Joseph Weigand, of the Weigand Fireworks Co., Chicago, Ill., staging the fireworks displays at the Gibson County Fair was most ably assisted in preparation of various set pieces by Denzil Seamon, well known young man of south Seminary street this city.

Seamon, whose paintings, sketches and chalk talks have attracted no little amount of attention, made sketches of Herbert Hoover, Al Smith, the national capital and a rattle at the fairgrounds. Weigand and his helpers took these sketches on paper and using them as a guide, built these set pieces
