esday mornings From Many Who Could Not Be Present — History From 1838 to 1910 by John M. Stormont

Mr. and Mrs. George Woods delightfully entertained the former teachers and pupils of the Greenwood school house, Tuesday, August 28, at their country home, east of the city. About one hundred old associates and friends enjoyed the day together. At the noon hour a delicious dinner was served.

Three members who attended the first school ever held in the log cabin school in 1838 are still living. They are Col. Gil R. Stormont, who was unable to attend, Mrs. Sarah Lawrence and John M. Stormont of this city. The two latter named were present.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in talks by teachers and pupils of the school, singing of old school songs, reading and the discussing of good times while attending the Greenwood school.

A splendid talk was made by Joseph Lath, who taught at the school three years. Letters from those unable to attend were read. A very pleasing greeting from Gil R. Stormont now in Indianapolis, was among these.

The main feature of the day was the history of the school from 1838 until 1910, written and read by John M. Stormont. Many interesting facts were noted in this history, one being that more boys from the Greenwood school and that vicinity were in the Civil War than any other place recorded. Mr. Stormont gave the names of those who were killed in that war, and those who have since died.

A number of pictures of pupils taken during the life of the Greenwood school were collected and shown during the afternoon. A picture belonging to Mrs. Lizzie Townsend was of forty two pupils, of whom only seventeen are now living.

All those attending are highly praising Mr. and Mrs. Woods for their hospitality and for the general good time which they had. The credit for the entire affair is due Mrs. Woods, formerly Miss Rhoda Kell, who planned and had charge of the reunion of the members of the Greenwood school.

This affair will probably be made an annual event, as that is the desire of a large number of the guests who spent the day together Tuesday.

CANTON TO

The garden was prettily and attractively decorated with electric lights and Japanese lanterns, together with many beautiful flowers. The Drago orchestra played during the evening.
Tempting refreshments of brick ice cream, in red, white and blue, and fancy individual cakes were served.
Punch was served during the evening.
Favors of an English and an American flag were given.

A feature of the evening was the display of the top tier of the wedding cake brought by Mr. and Mrs. Baltzell from their wedding, which took place in England. A number of the decorations and some of the icings were broken in transportation.

The out-of-town guest list included:
Harry Bennyhoff of Vandalia, Ill., Miss Mary O'Hara of St. Elmo, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. McIllinger, of Ft. Branch, Mrs. Florence Gray Small of Dublin, Ireland, Mrs. Harris of Louisville and Miss Muriel Morgan of Granite City Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Baltzell are leaving the latter part of next week for Cambridge Mass., where they will reside for the present.

Society Honors Mrs. Howe

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the First Methodist church

Mrs. Elizabeth Howe, a senior mem-the society. In order to be a memorial member fifty dollars must be raised by the society, which is to be spent for retired missionaries. The local society gladly raised the necessary amount to show their love and respect for Mrs. Howe, who was unable to attend this meeting.

Following the business meeting a most enjoyable social hour was spent during which refreshments were served.
