

WILLIAM GREEN INVITED TO SPEAK HERE LABOR DAY

HOPE TO SECURE A. F. OF L. PRESIDENT—FARMERS TO JOIN IN BIG EVENT, WITH W. H. SETTLE LIKELY SPEAKER.

President William Green, of the American Federation of Labor, has been invited to deliver an address at the gigantic Labor Day celebration of southern Indiana to be held at the Gibson county fair grounds.

Mr. Green has not yet accepted the invitation, due to the fact that he has many other invitations for addresses, but it is believed that he will come here, in view of the fact that he is to attend a labor federation meet in Evansville about that time.

It is also stated that William H. Settle, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau Federation, may be the Labor Day speaker here for the farmers.

Plans for the celebration are going forward rapidly and the affair will be far more extensive than ever before attempted throughout this section. Farmers are to take part, it is announced, and they have named their committees and are making plans to join unop labor in the big parade and day's events.

ELKS OFFICERS ELECTED; 1929 CITY SELECTED

MIAMI, Fla., July 11.—Election of a complete ticket of officers with Murray Hulbert, of New York, as grand exalted ruler, and selection of Los Angeles as 1929 convention city, featured the first business session of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks at their 64th annual meeting here Tuesday.

Mr. Hulbert succeeds John Frank Malley of Boston.

Other officers elected or appointed were: Mifflin G. Potts, Pasadena, Cal. grand esteemed leading knight; O. L. Hayden, Alva, Okla., grand esteemed loyal knight; John J. Powell, Wilmington, Del., grand esteemed lecturing knight; J. Edgar Misters, Charleroi, Pa., grand secretary (re-elected); Fred A. Morris, Mexico, Mo., grand treasurer (reelected); Thomas J. Brady, Brookline, Mass., grand tiler; W. H. Mustaine, Nashville, Tenn., grand inner guard, and John K. Birch, Grand Rapids, Mich., grand trustee.

ABILITY SHOWN IN ART DISPLAY AT LOCAL LIBRARY

EXHIBITS CONSIST OF PORTRAITS, LANDSCAPES, INK SKETCHES, FASHIONS, CARVINGS—SHOULD BE SEEN BY EVERYONE.

Many interesting pictures, drawn from children, young men and young women over the county are on display at the Art Exhibit now being held at the Princeton Public Library, under the direction of the Princeton Art Club recently formed.

Among the exhibits are portraits, landscapes, done in oil and water coloring, sketches in ink, fashions and carvings with soap.

No small amount of ability is shown from the work done by the youngest to the oldest. The pictures displayed are done by the artists within recent years.

To be appreciated to the fullest extent, the exhibit should be seen by all lovers of art. This is the first exhibit of the kind to be held in the library and was held this year through the efforts of Miss Julia Mason and the library board, and the co-operation and interest shown by the local art club. It is hoped that the exhibit will be an annual affair at the library and plans are being made to that effect.

The artists, about twenty in number, exhibits of each, and kinds, are as follows:

- Denzil Seamon, Princeton high school, 1 head pastel, 2 landscapes, 1 pen drawing.
- Virginia Knaub, Princeton high school, 4 water colors, 2 Japanese scenes, 1 animal water color.
- Clara Combs, Princeton high school 4 water colors.
- Eizabeth Watts, Princeton high school, 2 silhouette;
- Flora M. Springer, Princeton, St. Mary's Institute, F. B. Aulich, Chicago, Catherine Cherry St. Louis.
- Paul Scott, Owensville, John Hopkin's Institute, Indianapolis, 10 oils, 1 bust of himself.
- Miss Elsie Drago, Owensville, 2 landscapes (oil) Winona Lake.
- Robert Maxam, Princeton, H. Rustin Academy, Havana, Cuba, Art Institute, Chicago, 6 water color landscapes; 1 landscape in oil; 1 still life, oil.
- Mrs. Monroe, Oakland City, 2 landscapes, water color.
- Virginia Dickens, Princeton, John Herrin Institute, 24 water colors, 1 still life, water color.
- Mary Eleanor Ewing, Princeton, Art League and Traphen School of Fashions, New York City, 1 still life, oil; fashion drawings; and sketches, water colors.

PART OF

Picture shows President fishing in the Brule river. President was coming.

Children's Play Opened at Fra Lafayette Park

Announcement is made that within the next ten days, further announcement of which will be made in the Daily Democrat, two city playgrounds will be opened here for the summer under auspices of the Princeton Playground Association.

Both the Franklin school ground and Lafayette (north side) park are to be used as playgrounds. Last year, Franklin grounds was used as the summer playground proved a decided success. This year, the park has been secured in addition a winding road has recently been completed by the city park board in the plan of beautifying the park and this location for a playground is now most desirable. It is planned to add equi