

Indiana Forecast: Fair tonight and Saturday; continued warm.

PRINCETON

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, PRINCETON
 CLARION PUBLISHING COMPANY (Inc.), PUBLISHERS PRINCETON

VS

Princeton, Ind.

E

day

ys

..$1.00
 ..$1.00
 ..$1.00
 ..$1.00
 ..$1.00
 ..$1.00
 ..$1.00
 ..$1.00

d
 ..$1.00
 ..$1.00
 ..$1.00
 ..$1.00

..$1.00
 ..$1.00
 ..$1.00
 Price

T
 ..$1.00

..$1.00
 ..$1.00
 ..$1.00

LABOR DAY EVENTS ANNOUNCED TODAY

WILLIAM H. SETTLE AND POWERS HAPGOOD TO BE SPEAKERS—AMUSEMENTS WILL ABOUND

The general committee, having in charge arrangements for the big Labor day celebration in Princeton and at the Gibson county fairgrounds on September 6, last night completed arrangements.

Everything is now ready for the big event which will bring farm bureau and union labor organizations here from all parts of southwestern Indiana.

The parade will start in the forenoon and will move around the public square, being completed before noon. Bands, drum corps, floats and marching delegations will comprise one of the greatest parades ever seen here. Prizes will be given for the best floats and for the labor organization having the largest percent of its members in line.

Concert Opens Program

The program at the fairgrounds will open with a band concert at noon.

At 1 o'clock President William H. Settle of the Indiana Farm bureau will deliver an address.

At 1:45 o'clock a male quartet will sing.

At 2 o'clock Powers Hapgood, a collegian and union coal miner, who has dug coal in the far east and in many other parts of the world, will speak.

At 3 o'clock there will be free acts.

At 4 o'clock the male quartet will sing and the Charleston contest will be held.

At 4:30 o'clock there will be a band concert and ball game. The baseball game will be played in the circle. It is well to note here that cars will park on the race track and not in the ring, both during the day and evening.

At 6 o'clock, Professor Skiver will put on his balloon ascension.

At 7 o'clock the male quartet will

INSTITUTE ENDS PROFITABLE WEEK

ONE-ACT PLAY CLOSING FEATURE THIS AFTERNOON—TALENT HIGHLY PRAISED

The Gibson county teachers institute will close today after a five days session. This year's institute has been very well attended, even more so than in years past. The opening exercises were in charge of Rev. R. L. Phillips, pastor of the First Methodist church. Rev. Phillips recited the Eighth Psalm from memory. He told of the foundation one should lay for life, and gave as an example an actual building with its foundation imbedded in solid rock.

Miss Lura Blackburn, instructor in literature in the Oak Park high school Oak Park, Ill., talked on "Modern Poetry," at the first part of the morning's program.

A. L. Trester, permanent secretary of the Indiana High School Athletic association, talked this morning on "Extra Curricular Activities."

Albert Stump of Indianapolis talked on "Robert Burns."

Miss Blackburn and Mr. Trester again talked during the afternoon.

The institute will close this afternoon with a play, entitled "A Pair of Gloves." Those appearing in the play are Misses Dorothy Mae Lawrence, Katherine Brownlee, Rose Taylor, Janice Jopling, and Luella Summers. The girls are all members of the Treble Clef club.

The musical program for the day was very much enjoyed. There were vocal solos by Mrs. Louis Rothschild, Jr., Miss Ruth Dame, Louis Summers and Van West. A reading was given by Miss Helen Volkman.

The interesting feature of the morning was a violin concert by Henry Humphries, accompanied by his father, Mitchell Humphries, of Evansville. Miss Stella Smith of Chicago, who

REMO FROM

W. E. COX GOES TO ILL. MINE COMPANY

FRANCISCO SUPERINTENDENT WILL BE SUCCEEDED BY JOSE MOSEBY OF SULLIVAN

W. E. Cox, for the past six years superintendent for the Francisco mine company, will leave Monday Taylorville, Ill., where he will take similar position with the Peabody company.

His family will remain here a time longer at their home, 640 State street.

Mr. Cox will be succeeded as Francisco mine superintendent by Jose Moseby who comes here from Sullivan, Ind. Mr. Moseby will assume his duties September 1. He comes highly recommended.

Mr. Cox said this afternoon that it was a matter of satisfaction to him that during the last five years of his superintendency at Francisco not a man had been killed while working in the mine below and that had been only one death on top in five years.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox have been long residents of Princeton and will be missed by the community. Mr. Moseby will bring his family here and they will make Princeton their home.

greatest parades ever seen here. Prizes will be given for the best floats and for the labor organization having the largest percent of its members in line.

Concert Opens Program

The program at the fairgrounds will open with a band concert at noon.

At 1 o'clock President William H. Settle of the Indiana Farm bureau will deliver an address.

At 1:45 o'clock a male quartet will sing.

At 2 o'clock Powers Hapgood, a collegian and union coal miner, who has dug coal in the far east and in many other parts of the world, will speak.

At 3 o'clock there will be free acts.

At 4 o'clock the male quartet will sing and the Charleston contest will be held.

At 4:30 o'clock there will be a band concert and ball game. The baseball game will be played in the circle. It is well to note here that cars will park on the race track and not in the ring, both during the day and evening.

At 6 o'clock, Professor Skiver will put on his balloon ascension.

At 7 o'clock the male quartet will sing again and there will be more free acts.

At 8 o'clock fireworks will be put on and at 8:30 o'clock Jimmy Hitch and Kid Webster, two fast local boys, will be seen in a boxing match.

Last Meeting Next Thursday.

A last meeting will be held by the general committee next Thursday evening at C. L. U. hall.

The Patoka Township Farm bureau met last night at 8 o'clock in the office of County Agent East. The final plans for the Labor day picnic were made.

The Center Township Farm bureau will meet tonight at the Francisco State bank for final arrangements and the Johnson Township Farm bureau will meet Monday night at the Haubstadt bank for the same purpose.

DEATHS

James S. Tribble

(Special to The Clarion-News.)

HAUBSTADT, Ind., Aug. 27.—James S. Tribble, 72, well known Haubstadt resident, died at his home here at 8:30 o'clock last night. He had been alling some time.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the residence. Burial will be in new Mt. Moriah cemetery.

Surviving are the widow; one son, J. O. Tribble, of Shelbyville, Ind.; three grandchildren, Ida and Margaret Hoar and Elsie Tribble, and two sisters, Mrs. Joseph K. McGary of Princeton and Mrs. Otis Miller of Idaho.

HORSE PULLING

CONTESTS WILL BE

Poetry," at the first part of the morning's program.

A. L. Trester, permanent secretary of the Indiana High School Athletic association, talked this morning on "Extra Curricular Activities."

Albert Stump of Indianapolis talked on "Robert Burns."

Miss Blackburn and Mr. Trester again talked during the afternoon.

The institute will close this afternoon with a play, entitled "A Pair of Gloves." Those appearing in the play are Misses Dorothy Mae Lawrence, Katherine Brownlee, Rosé Taylor, Janice Jopling, and Luella Summers. The girls are all members of the Treble Clef club.

The musical program for the day was very much enjoyed. There were vocal solos by Mrs. Louis Rothschild, Jr., Miss Ruth Dame, Louis Summers and Van West. A reading was given by Miss Helen Volkman.

The interesting feature of the morning was a violin concert by Henry Humphries, accompanied by his father, Mitchell Humphries, of Evansville.

Miss Stella Smith of Chicago, who talked yesterday, said publicly that this was the best institute she had so far attended, and especially complimented this city on having such a good quality of local talent. Miss Young was also complimented on her work in this year's institute.

Much credit is due County Superintendent U. S. Abbott for the effort that he put forth in securing the institute speakers.

Mrs. Walter Stevens received praise for her work as accompanist during the week.

Another feature of the morning program was when Miss Nellie Young agreed to have her locks shorn if the institute wished. A vote was taken shortly after 10 o'clock this morning. The vote stood—No, 165; yes, 95. It is now made certain that Miss Young will not join the vast ranks of the bobbed hair feminine part of our country.

SPECIAL SESQUI EXHIBIT AT FAIR

Announcement is made by the management of the Gibson county fair that the Philadelphia Sesqui-Centennial will have a special tent and exhibit at the fair next week, in charge of a special representative.

Evangelist E. W. Reeder In Last Message Tonight

There were three additions to the Emmanuel Baptist church last night as a result of the service conducted by Evangelist E. W. Reeder in the tent, located at 932 south Gibson street.

Tonight there will be a large delegation from Evansville to furnish ing company, will leave Monday for Taylorville, Ill., where he will take a similar position with the Peabody Coal company.

His family will remain here a short time longer at their home, 640 east State street.

Mr. Cox will be succeeded as Francisco mine superintendent by John Moseby who comes here from Sullivan Ind. Mr. Moseby will assume his new duties September 1. He comes highly recommended.

Mr. Cox said this afternoon that was a matter of satisfaction to him that during the last five years of his superintendency at Francisco No. 1 not a man had been killed while working in the mine below and that there had been only one death on top in the five years.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox have been active residents of Princeton and will be missed by the community. Mr. Moseby will bring his family here and they also will make Princeton their home.

REGISTRATION LAW HELD VALID

The 1925 act of the Indiana legislature providing for permanent registration of voters, is valid in the opinion of Attorney General Arthur L. Gilliom and this opinion is concurred in by both the Republican and Democratic members of the state board of election commissioners.

Therefore, all persons who voted at the general election in 1924 and who continue to reside in the same precinct need not register for the 1926 election.

Those who must register are:

All persons who did not vote at the general election in November, 1924.

All persons who have moved from the precinct in which they voted at the 1924 general election.

All first voters.

All registration boards will be in session from September 4 to October 4 inclusive. Applications for registration may be signed at any time but cannot be filed with the board of registration before September 4.

OHIO MINERS WILL TALK WAGE OFFER

BRIDGEPORT, O., Aug. 27.—(P.)

Union miners of the eastern Ohio coal field were ordered today by district officers to assemble in mass meeting here Monday afternoon to discuss the proposal of the Ohio Operators' association that the Jacksonville agreement be revised. The operators offered a wage of $5 a day, which some, they said, would permit them to request