MARY BENBROOK ILL WITH TETANUS

LITTLE GIRL REPORTED TO BE IN SERIOUS CONDITION AT HOSPITAL

Mary Benbrook, age 11, daughter of Mrs. James Benbrook, living in south Main street is in a serious condition at the Methodist hospital where she was taken Saturday afternoon suffering with tetanus. About two weeks ago the little girl ran a splinter in the top of her right foot. She was given medical treatment by a local physician and it was thought the injury was healing.

The little girl was playing out in front of her home Saturday morning when she suddenly became ill, and was later taken to the hospital. Her condition today was said to be serious.

M'CLEARY TO BE CHIEF SPEAKER HERE, LABOR DAY

COMMITTEES MAKE FURTHER ARRANGEMENTS FOR CELEBRATION HERE—THREE BANDS SECURED—TAYLOR AND FRITZ ALSO TO SPEAK

Labor day committees and representatives met at Winslow yesterday, made further plans for celebration of Labor day at the fairgrounds here, Monday, September 1.

W. M. McCleary, of Kansas City, Mo., vice president of the International Railway Carman, and known as one of the best orators in the organized crafts, will be here on that occasion and will deliver the principal address of the day.

Mr. McCleary's subject will be, "Consolidation of Railways."

Other speakers will include T. N. Taylor, president, and Adolph J. Fritz, secretary of the State Federation of Labor. There will be other speakers, to be announced later.

A contract has been closed with the Illinois Radio Engineers to install amplifiers for the speakers' stand.

There will be free acts, balloon ascension and other attractions, including the McClellan shows, which will stay over after the fair for the Labor day celebration.

Merchants are preparing to enter many floats in the grand parade which starts at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Three bands have been secured for the day and there will be other bands, probably five in all.

All committees will meet next Sunday, August 3, at 2 p. m., in C. I. U. hall here, to make further arrangements.

Sunday, August 10, a general meeting will be held here.
