

Saturday, Aug 16, 1930
Vol # 157
Princeton, Clarion News
P-1

very interesting meeting was held at the W. C. T. U. at the local institute day morning and afternoon at the Princeton First Baptist church. A large number were in attendance.

The morning session was opened by devotions in charge of Mrs. Shryock, for which a talk on institute work was given by Mrs. Bessie Barrett. Reports of the superintendents of different departments were then given. Committees were appointed, after which Mrs. Goldie Wilcox gave an interesting report. The noon-tide prayer service closed the morning session. This service was in charge of Mrs. Ford Porter. Luncheon was served in the basement of the church.

A vocal duet by Mrs. R. S. Hornbrook and Mrs. Essie Woods, opened the afternoon session. Devotions, in charge of Mrs. N. V. Cox were followed by prayer. Mrs. John Finney and Mrs. Vera Tharp rendered a vocal duet, after which a playlet, "John Barleycorn wants to Come Back," was given by the children. Charles McBurney next gave a cornet solo, accompanied by his sister, Miss Carolyn McBurney. In the White Ribbon service, the white ribbon was tied to the wrists of five babies—Robert Ford, Lloyd Graham, Percy E. Snyder, Betty Bryant and Dan McDonald. This service was in charge of Mrs. Bessie Barrett. A dialogue by Mrs. James McDonald and Mrs. Paul Habig followed. Miss Mayds Woodburn and Miss Mary Pellorne gave a piano duet. Mrs. Erwin Mohundro next spoke on "Our Young People." Following her talk, it was decided to organize a Loyal Temperance league, a junior society, in the near future. Remarks by Mrs. Goldie Wilcox and Mrs. Bessie Barrett were followed by the benediction by the Rev. J. McBurney.

...will be taken in the...
...to Midland, near...
...Monday morning and the...
...funeral will be held at Lebanon church...
...there at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon...
...Burial will be in Midland cemetery.

LABOR DAY BODY TO MEET SUNDAY

NEXT-TO-LAST SESSION BEFORE
CELEBRATION, AT C. L. U.
HALL

The Southern Indiana Labor Day association will hold the semi-windup meeting before the annual celebration of Labor day on September 1, at the Princeton C. L. U. hall at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The celebration this year is to be held at the fairgrounds. But one more meeting will be held after tomorrow's session before the celebration which promises to be one of the best ever held.

Hundreds from all over southern Indiana will be drawn here for the event.

BATTERY SHOWN IN STATE BOOK, GUARDING FILL

A further examination of the Indiana state publication, "Indiana," issued by the board of public printing, increases the good opinion of this volume which is one of the most valuable reference works the state has ever issued.

It contains the personnel of every state board with pictures of its members, as for instance the state tax board, state highway commission, public service commission and state indus-

CHURCH WILL SING
... SUNDAY