TO MEET TEAM AT WASHINGTON

SECRETARIES TO INDIANA SENATORS ARRANGE FOR WHITE HOUSE VISIT

Following arrangements made by S. T. Fisher with John Hayes, secretary to Senator James E. Watson and George W. Compton, secretary to Senator Arthur R. Robinson, at Washington, D. C. Theodore Joslin, secretary to President Hoover was arranging to have the Princeton All-Stars at the White House this afternoon and, if at all possible, have their photographs taken with President Hoover on the front porch of the White House.

With the likelihood that President Hoover would make an early start for Rapidan, Va., the intention was to have the team picture taken, anyway, at the White House.

Yesterday evening a telegram was received by Mr. Fisher from Manager Eldon Sisson, as follows: "Tough break. Arrive Washington, Saturday 3 p. m. Wire arrangements."

Mr. Fisher and Lewis Hayden, who is making arrangements here in the absence of Commander A. Dale Eby of Princeton post for the home-coming of the boys, this morning were in telephone communication with Secretaries Hayes and Compton, at Washington, and the latter said they would meet the Princeton team at the train and would personally assist in their entertainment. The arrangements were made through the secretaries, Senator Watson being in Canada on a vacation and Senator Robinson in Indianapolis.

FOG AGAIN FORCES LINDBERGH'S DOWN

CAME DOWN AT SHANA, SMALL SETTLEMENT ON OKHOTSK SEA TODAY

NEMURO, Japan, Aug. 22.—(AP)—An enormous blanket of fog veiling the jagged peaks of Iturup island defeated Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh today in their renewed attempt to fly from the middle Kurile islands to Nemuro.

After having been held down in the vicinity of Muroto bay, Shimushiru island, since early Wednesday, by motor trouble and fog, the Lindberghs managed to get their plane in shape again after several hours of work and took off at 2:10 p. m. (12:10 a. m. E. S. T.) today for Nemuro, 400 miles to the southwest.

Reaching the mountainous coast of Iturup, the largest of the Kuriles, in about two hours, Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh ran into heavy fog behind which lurked eight mountain peaks each 3,000 to 5,000 feet high.

Radio Predicament

Mrs. Lindbergh radioed their predicament to Ochiishi wireless station here and was advised the safest place in that vicinity was at Shana, a small settlement on the Okhotsk sea side of the island.

The flyers followed the advice and soon were over Shana. Then they were confronted with the choice of landing on the choppy bay or on a small lagoon nearby. Lindbergh chose the lagoon. It proved to be a doubtful alternative but radio advices said the

LEGIONNAIRES ASSEMBLE FOR STATE MEETING

ANDERSON, Ind., Aug. 22.—(P)—

There was a concentration of troops here today. They were the troops of 1917-18, then the U. S. army and now the American Legion.

They came here for the thirteenth annual convention of the Indiana department of the Legion.

The infiltration of Legionnaires began yesterday and increased today with 530 being registered during the morning.

Early arrivals included Floyd Young, Davis, of Tipton, state adjutant; Paul McNutt, of Bloomington, former national commander, and Frank McHale, Logansport, and Clarence Jackson, Newcastle, former state commanders.

Annual Wreck Today

Harry McClain, of Shelbyville, grand chef de gare on the Indiana "Forty and Eight," and other state officers of the fun order were also on hand. The annual wreck of the "Forty and Eight" will be held today.

The early attendance indicated the convention would attract a crowd larger than has attended any previous state gathering.

The first event on the Legion program is the band and drum corps contest tomorrow afternoon. Thirty organizations will compete in these contests.

The Lafayette delegation attracted attention with its replica of a French railroad engine and a box car.

Goes to Anderson Instead of Houston

Arthur Dill, Ft. Branch postmaster, who is first vice commander of Princeton post, No. 25, American Legion, became thoroughly permeated with baseball enthusiasm when he was official representative of the post at the Richmond, Ind., regional baseball junior meet which the All-Stars won.

Dill was at Indianapolis yesterday and watched eagerly for news from Manchester, N. H. If Princeton had won the eastern sectional Dill intended to go to Houston, Tex., to see the finals, but if not, he intended going to the state Legion convention at Anderson which convenes tomorrow.

took off at 2:10 p. m. (12:10 a. m. E. S. T.) today for Nemuro, 400 miles to the southwest.

Reaching the mountainous coast of Kurup, the largest of the Kuriles, in about two hours, Colonel and Mrs. Lindbergh ran into heavy fog behind which lurked eight mountain peaks each 3,000 to 5,000 feet high.

Radio Predicament

Mrs. Lindbergh radioed their predicament to Ochiishi wireless station here and was advised the safest place in that vicinity was at Shana, a small settlement on the Okhotsk sea side of the island.

The flyers followed the advice and soon were over Shana. Then they were confronted with the choice of landing on the choppy bay or on a small lagoon nearby. Lindbergh chose the lagoon. It proved to be a doubtful alternative but radio advices said the landing was effected without damage to the plane's pontoons. They landed at 4:48 p. m. (2:48 a. m. E. S. T.).

Having spent three days fighting treacherous ocean currents and fog and tinkering with the motor at Ketoi island and Muroto bay, Lindbergh had been so eager to take off from the latter place that he arose at 5:40 a. m. to begin putting the engine in shape. He worked steadily until some time after noon.

Hop Off Quickly

Early after noon weather reports indicated favorable flying conditions to Nemuro and Lindbergh paused only long enough to eat a sandwich for lunch before taking off.

During the morning Aviation Officer Tanaka at Nemuro radioed Lindbergh suggesting the Japanese authorities were eager to furnish mechanics to aid him if necessary but each time the colonel declined the offer with a "no, thank you! Will soon complete it myself."

Shana, where the Lindberghs are spending tonight, has a population of about 1,000. Its chief industries are salmon hatching and fish canning. It also has a whaling station. There is a radio station, a bathing beach and a weather observatory.

The landing at Shana marked the third time the Lindberghs had been forced down in attempting to fly from Petropavlovsk, Kamchatka, to Nemuro, 807 miles, in one hop.
