NO LOCAL CELEBRATION

But Many Will Go to Evansville for Labor Day.

Monday is Labor Day, and business in general will be suspended. While Princeton will have no celebration, many union men will go to Evansville or elsewhere to attend special observances of the day. W. H. Raney, of this city, will be one of the speakers at the Evansville celebration.

Don't overlook the fact that you must have good flaxseed for poultices. Biggs' flaxseed is pure, full strength and rich in oil.

and attendance and God-fearing man. During the civil war he was gallantly and he was deeply devoted to R. He will be sadly missed by his comrades there. In politics Mr. King was a strong Republican, and for four years, though he had been either assessor of Patoka. His public life was as clear as his private life, and that no man in Gibson County was more thoroughly informed in affairs, as he. At the death he was serving as township assessor. A long life that has been and usefully spent. It is unexpected to a close friend find him prepared, and his greatest grief comes to the yet a little while, the consolation that he has entered into the peace and joy of those who have passed on. Don't fail to eat less fish at the fair.
