LANSING, Mich. — The controversy between Governor Wilber M. Brucker and Howard C. Lawrence, state treasurer, was renewed today when Lawrence issued a vigorous statement censuring the governor. The treasurer charged the governor has neglected governmental duties to devote his time to campaign trips. He charged the governor "seems to want to leave the government to commissions."

CLEVELAND, O.—Major James H. Doolittle, new transcontinental air record holder and winner of the Bendix trophy, took a large share of attention at the national air races today when he flew a trial mile speed dash at 272.934 miles an hour, unofficial. This was six miles an hour faster than the official American speed record.

BALTIMORE—Charges of graft and perjury were brought today against two former city officials and five other men in presentments returned by the grand jury at the end of a long investigation of the city administration of the last four years.

BEVERLY COUNTRY CLUB, CHICAGO—After a nip and tuck battle over the outward nine of the final round, Francis Ouimet, of Boston, remained five up over Jack Westland, of Chicago, at the twenty-seventh hole of their 36-hole match for the United States amateur golf championship today.

HERE ON FEDERAL SEED LOAN WORK

Artie F. Lentz, who is field representative for the United States department of agriculture, now attached to the farmers' seed loan office at St. Louis, is in Gibson county, making such investigations that are necessary and making inspections of crops under mortgage to the United States government. At this time the St. Louis office has several representatives in Indiana for the purposes stated above and to supervise the selling of the crops under mortgage and to make collections. Mr. Lentz states that it is agreeable that the farmers make remittances direct to St. Louis, making their checks payable to "dispensing clerk, United States department of agriculture."

Mr. Lentz will be in this county for just a short while but states that other agents are working in the field and at the right time a representative will devote such time that is necessary in each county.

R. H. McElveen is administrative officer in charge of the office located in St. Louis.

MINER INJURED BY SLATE FALL

Ralph Hill, 30, 218 east State street, was painfully injured about 10 o'clock last night at Kings mine, by a fall of slate. Hill received lacerations about the head and a sprained ankle. His injuries were treated by a physician. Later he was taken to his home.

Golf Tournament Monday Afternoon

The annual Labor day golf tournament of the Princeton Country club will be played Monday afternoon, September 7, at the local course, north of this city.

Play will begin at 1 o'clock so that all may have time to view the Labor day parade in the morning. Golfers will compete for the individual low score loving cup and the handicap loving cup.

DRIVE AGAINST POOLS

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 5. — (AP) — Continuing their drive against lotteries and baseball pools, Indianapolis police today seized hundreds of tickets and a ledger containing the names of thousands of customers and agents and arrested William C. Drinkard in a north side raid.

PIKE STRIP MINE EMPLOYEES OUT

PETERSBURG, Ind., Sept. 5.—The employees of the Patoka Coal company, numbering between 75 and 150 men, refused to work Friday morning, when wages were cut from $6.10 to $3 per day on some of the men engaged in working about the mine. The operators wished to pay the men wages paid for construction work, but the employees of the mine refused to meet the reduction in wages offered them. The trouble is confined to the striping mine owned by the Patoka Coal company, and does not extend to the other striping mines of the county.

CLAIMS AGAINST ABSHIER SETTLED

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 5. — (AP) — Claims made by the state against Smith H. Abshier, former trustee of Ohio township, Warrick county, convicted of embezzlement, have been paid nearly in full, James M. Ogden, attorney general, announced today.

Charles E. Edwards, deputy attorney general, effected a settlement for $3,074.45 with the National Surety company, Abshier's bonding company. Abshier was found guilty of embezzling while in office and three other persons were convicted of making fraudulent claims.

ROUSH AGAIN IS STAR FOR REDS

Eddie Roush, who has been hitting the ball at a fast clip for the Cincinnati Reds the last few days, was again a star when the Cubs were downed for the fifth straight time by the Reds yesterday, 12 to 3. Eddie in five trips to the plate cracked out three hits, two singles and a triple and scored three runs. He was prominent in all the Red rallies starting the one off in the first with his triple.

The miners locals compete for their own loving cup. Awards are made for the best floats and also for the best store window displaying union made goods.

The program at the grounds will be filled throughout the day and there will literally be something doing every minute as the published program discloses. The main speaker for labor will be Boyd Gurley, editor of The Indianapolis Times and for the farm bureau Farmer Brown.

Both are well known speakers.

Fast Boxing Assured

A program of fast boxing has been prepared for the final event at the fairgrounds at 7:30 o'clock Monday night.

The headline attraction will be an eight-round fight between Garfield Rice, Evansville, and Albert Connors of Oakland City. The fighters will go into the ring at 135 pounds. The participants are said to be two of the most promising lightweights in southern Indiana.

The semi-final bout will be a six-round go between Elmer Selby of Winslow, and Young Corbett of Evansville. Selby won the tri-state bantamweight championship recently at Evansville. Corbett is considered the best flyweight in southern Indiana.

Three other bouts of four rounds each will complete the program which promises plenty of action.

MISSING YOUTH RETURNS HOME

Frederick Martin, 15, son of Mrs. Frieda Martin, 214 east Warnock street, returned home late yesterday, after almost a week's absence. He left home last Sunday, telling no one where he was going.

No word had been received from him until his return yesterday. He said he had been in Memphis, Tenn.
