 day, September 7.
 The taking of the films will be handled out of Chicago, it is said.

TRACING WASHINGTON
 WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—In order to collect information in relation to the travels of George Washington and the different places in which he lived, an atlas committee has been appointed in charge of this work. These travels and dwelling places of the first president will be shown on maps to be prepared to bring out the geographical background of Washington's life. To supplement the maps and present the material in detail an atlas will be published by the government showing the territory visited by Washington during his entire career.

MILLIONS ON RACE COURSE
 CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—(AP) The racing course to be built at Miami, Fla., by the Miami Beach Jockey club, will cost at least $2,000,000 and possibly more. Joseph M. Smoot, head of the Miami Beach organization, said today in revealing plans for the project.
