now taken up the children there and took them to the beach to enjoy the swim. This is the second week the children of the home have been taken and according to Theodore Miller, chairman of the committee in charge, it is to be a weekly event.

The usual precautions were taken at the beach this morning for the children's safety, with several expert swimmers on hand.

TO COMPLETE PLANS FOR LABOR-DAY MEET

Plans for the Labor day celebration to be held in Princeton on Labor day, September 3, will probably be completed at the meeting of all committees at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Central Labor Union hall, in this city.

Parade captains of each local will meet at 10 o'clock, Sunday, August 26, in the C. L. U. hall to draw for positions in the parade.

All business men, intending to have floats in the parade who have not already made arrangements, are asked to see H. J. Fritz.

HERE FOR VISIT WITH RELATIVES

Lieutenant and Mrs. Carter-Kolb arrived here yesterday evening motoring from Ft. Moultrie, Charleston, S. C.

They will visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Kolb in this city and Mr. and Mrs. William B. Bingham at Patoka. From here they will go to Ft. Benning, Ga., where Lieutenant Kolb will take the army infantry school course.

Lieutenant Kolb speaks highly of Supply Sergeant William Lasley's record in the service. Sergeant Lasley, a Princeton boy, completed his enlistment at Ft. Moultrie and was one of the most valuable men at that station. He now has a responsible civil position at Charleston.

HOSPITAL NOTES

The following underwent tonsil operations this morning: Anna Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Carter, of this city, and Robert Wayne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Duncan, of Oakland City.

Mrs. Lydia Harkness, who suffered a fractured hip in a fall, yesterday, is resting well today.

CARS IN COLLISION

Paul Masters reported at police headquarters that while trying to avoid hitting a car at the intersection of Emerson and Prince streets yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock he struck a car belonging to O. V. Schneider, which was parked on Prince street. The front wheel and fender on the Masters' car were damaged.

Immediately following the Masters-Schneider accident, and at the same corner, a truck belonging to George Soller, driven by Earl Armstrong, and a car driven by Mac Wilson collided with little damage to either car.

Putting Years on Egypt

It is said the telephone was known to the ancient Egyptians. Is that what made them ancient?

"A Decent Day's Work"

If at the end of the day you say that you have caused no harm to anyone you have met, you have lessened no one's belief or mankind, that you helped the discouraged and nothing to the vanity of the ostentatious, then you have done a day's work—London Express.

Comes C. O. D.

One peculiar feature about the C. O. D. service is that one doesn't necessarily have to look for it to find it.—Evansville Times

Where Britons Wrote an Epic Page

Here is the spot where Kitchener's "contemptibles" proved that Britons haven't forgotten how to die. It is the famous Gray Tunnel at Vimy Ridge, where for weeks a bloody and battered army of British and Canadians withstood the flower of the German army. The photo shows a party of veterans visiting the scene of their greatest effort.
