

Tuesday Aug 29, 1950
NO. 22

Leaders

ICAN LEAGUE
Ab	G	AB	R	H	Per.
86	331	75	121	366
111	393	88	139	354
81	308	62	108	351
121	497	93	173	348
105	386	76	131	339
SAL LEAGUE
Ab	G	AB	R	H	Per.
110	442	81	157	355
102	312	51	106	340
114	427	82	141	330
110	397	63	130	328
114	472	75	153	324

WEATHER
Southern Indiana—Scattered showers tonight and Wednesday.

PRINCETON

105TH YEAR—NO. 22

• Its Paid Circulation ^{PDC} PRINCETON, INDIANA

Ads Bring Results—Small Cost

MODEL
Dad 'N Lad
PRINCETON, IND.

son Hats raffner Marx clothes •
all other good divertised brands.

RS
VE
E!

mail
ers do.
as the mail
count visit ndly.

PERPETUAL LIATION
Princeton, Ind.
Phone 368

Reds Close Main Announce Program For Labor Day Celebration

MacArthur G
Copy Of Fore
Policy Positio

NEWS VIEWS

Squad cars closed in on a filling station to trap a man reported prowling on the roof at Duluth, Minn.

They got their man but weren't very proud of the catch. The man was a cardboard dummy, central figure in an advertising display.

Nobody can say Sheriff James F. Cunningham of Indianapolis, doesn't think about the welfare of his prisoners. Cunningham asked the county council for $200 to provide ice water at the jail and $400 more for hot water.

Herbert Wolff of Scarsdale, N. Y., was ready to quit golf satisfied after 50 years at the game when he shot his first hole-in-one while on vacation at Fairlee, Vt. Wolff went back to the course again the next day, however, and shot another hole-in-one.

Harvard university faculty members enjoy free vacations on a Sutton's Island estate through a bequest of a Harvard alumnus. William L. Kendall, class of 1876, willed his house and land to the university of 1942 for "a place of rest, recreation and study." The house accommodates five persons for two-week periods. Kendall, a New York architect, left $25,000 for the upkeep of the estate.

Henry Heltmueller, 75, is proud of his mileage record. A retired farmer and part-time inventor of Cullman, Ala., Heltmueller says he has put 22,460 miles on his 1929 model A Ford and he's never taken it more than 25 miles from home.

In 1825 an enterprising group of Bostonians tried to introduce gas for illumination purposes. But, old newspaper files show, a lot of influential citizens would have no part of this new-fangled notion. Their argument: The sea was full of whale to supply plenty of oil for lighting.

Among the 300 business places found with unlocked doors or windows by police in a single month was the Ch...

The complete program for the Labor Day celebration at Boonville Sunday and Monday was announced by the program committee here today. The celebration will be held on the Boonville fairgrounds.

Sunday's program will consist of a sacred service beginning at 2:30 o'clock. The opening prayer will be given by Rev. Ollie Forston of Folsomville, followed by singing by the Freedom Quartet of Freedom church of Boonville, The McCandless Quartet of Petersburg and the Norlog Quartet of Lynnville. Speakers will be Rev. C. E. Williams of the General Baptist church in Boonville.

The Sunday evening program will open with an amateur show and 12 big acts starting at 8 o'clock. The Blue Grass State Shows will be on the midway for both days.

Monday's program is as follows:

10:00—The big parade. National Anthem—Marilyn Tuley, Boonville.
10:45—Welcome address—O. G. Rudolph, mayor of Boonville.
11:00—Speaker—Winfield K. Denton, from 8th Congressional district.

1:00—Band concert—Princeton high school band.
1:30—Free acts.
2:00—Band concert—Oakland City H. S. band.

2:45—Address—J. C. Lewis, Des Moines, Iowa, International Representative U. M. W. of A.
3:30—Free acts.
4:00—Horse show—Grand opening. Class No. 1—Ponies 48" and under. Class No. 2 Pair—No Silver Counts. Class No. 3—Three-Gaited; Class No. 4—Western Stake Race; Class No. 5—Five-Gaited; Class No. 6—Sack Race; Class No. 7—English Pleasure.

7:00—Band concert, Boonville.
8:00—Free acts.

The Boonville, Oakland City and Princeton high school bands and the Cardinal Swingsters will furnish music throughout the day.

Master of ceremonies will be Milton Board of Princeton and Robert S. Tuley of Boonville.

Bridges And His Union Expelled From CIO Group

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29—(UP)—The CIO expelled Harry Bridges and his International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union today for following the Communist line.

By a vote of 41 to 2, the CIO executive board headed by CIO President Philip Murray threw out the stormy west coast labor leader and his union.

The board also expelled the west coast Fisherman's union which recently merged with Bridges' organization.

The Australian-born Bridges recently was convicted of swearing falsely that he was not a Communist when he applied for U. S. citizenship. He is free on bail pending appeal.

The ouster was voted on the recommendation of a special CIO hearing committee. The committee took testimony in May showing that Bridges "over a period of years, participated in numerous secret meetings between Communist party functionaries and officers of Communist-controlled unions in the CIO."

At those meetings, according to the testimony of Michael J. Quill, of the Transport Workers union and M. Hedley Stone of the National Maritime union, Communist officials "instructed the union officers as to the party line and as to the positions that they were to take in the CIO and in their unions."

The two opposing votes to the expulsion action were cast by J. W. Robertson, a vice-president of Bridges' union, and Hugh Bryson, resident of the Marine Cooks and Stewards union, which also is slated for expulsion from the CIO.

Bridges' union was the 11th to be kicked out of the CIO for following the Communist line.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29—President Truman today assured that Gen. Douglas MacArthur's policy is on the country's side. He dispatched to the Pacific commander a copy of a statement sent Sunday to Warren G. Harding, U. S. representative to the United Nations.

Mr. Truman's message to MacArthur followed a presidential directive that the General was to make a statement on Formosa. MacArthur had sent to the Veterans of Foreign Wars convention in Chicago.

Without comment, the White House released a copy of MacArthur's message to MacArthur this morning:

"I am sending you for your information the text of a letter which I sent to Ambassador Acheson dated Aug. 27. I am sure when you examine this letter the letter which Ambassador Acheson addressed to Trygve L. Brundage Aug. 25 (a copy of which I told was sent your headquarters that night), you will understand my action of the 26th in directing the withdrawal of your message to the Veterans of Foreign Wars necessary."

"Gen. Collins and Admiral MacArthur have given me a comprehensive report on their conversation with you and of their visit to the United Nations forces now operating under your command in the area. Their reports were most satisfactory and highly gratifying to me."

Then the President appended the text of his letter to Acheson.

In today's message to MacArthur, the President seized an opportunity to take the edge of a rebuke over the Formosa statement by referring to the Far Eastern visit of Gen. James H. Doolittle, army chief of staff, and Adm. Forrest P. Sherman, chief of naval operations.

His statement that their reports "were most-satisfactory and highly gratifying to me" appeared to be a personal assurance of presidential approval of MacArthur's conduct of the Korean war.

The letter to Austin was a statement of policy which President first enunciated in June after the Korean fighting began.

The President said in that letter that the 7th fleet had been assigned to the Korean coast.

Captured Red

D. AL. I. G.