

to the home in south Hart street.
 The funeral will be held from the residence Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. E. G. Hildner, of the First Presbyterian church. The place of interment will not be determined until the arrival of Mrs. Moore tonight.

MT. CARMEL LABOR DAY

Largest Crowd Ever There—Goddess of Liberty in Parade.

MT. CARMEL, Ill., Sept. 8.—The Labor Day celebration here was one of the largest ever held in Wabash county. The industrial parade was headed by the Big Four band. About 75 floats and all the labor unions composed the parade which was witnessed by the largest crowd ever in Mt. Carmel.

Miss Josephine Drieblebels occupied the post of honor in the Central Labor Union float, having won over eight contestants for Goddess of Liberty. Several union speakers delivered addresses at the city park in the afternoon and evening, among them being James Mauckles, of the Blacksmiths' and Helpers' Union; F. L. Ronemus, of Brotherhood Railway Carmen; J. H. Keeman, of the Machinists' Union, and Congressman M. D. Foster, of Olney.

Judge W. D. Robinson, of Evansville, was in the city today on business.

Sherry went to Evansville on business.

A FEW OF THE MANY POINTS OF

THE KOHLER & CAMPBELL PIANO

Its superb construction.
 Its patented sound board.
 Its superior tonal quality.
 Its finish and design the most refined and artistic.
 It is the piano for the one that desires an investment that represents every cent in full quality and appearance.

HARDING & MILLER MUSIC CO.
 W. Duane, Ind.

The Fair Is Over

but our shop still continues to...
 East Side Meat Market
 South Side Square

Suits and Skirts

at

The Fair Store

South Side Square