Judges Named for Labor Day

MANY PRIZES TO BE OFFERED—
 FEATURE THIS YEAR WILL BE
 AWARD FOR BEST DISPLAY OF UNION-MADE GOODS

Representatives of more than 40 union labor organizations, from cities and towns of this section, met here last night at Central Labor union hall to make further arrangements for the big Labor day celebration which will be held here and at the Gibson county fairgrounds Monday, September 3.

A prize will be offered for the best display of union-made goods in stores on the public square. These displays should be in the windows before Labor day so that they may be judged.

There will be first and second prizes for Labor union turnouts in the parade, also first and second prizes for merchant floats. A prize will be awarded for the best Farm bureau representation and the miners cup will also be awarded for the best local showing in the parade.

Judges Are Named

Judges for the business displays will be Thomas Elsfelder, Andrew Withrow and N. Whitman. Alternates will be George Martin and John Wallace. Judges of union labor representations will be Russell Pfohl, Ed Criswell and Bernice Dye with John Little and Russell Farmer as alternates.

Another meeting will be held Sunday morning, August 26, at 10 o'clock at C. L. U. hall here at which time the parade captains of organizations will meet and draw for position in the parade.

The program at the fairgrounds will include varied and excellent entertainment. There will be an abundance of music both in the parade and at the grounds. Two nationally known speakers, Leon Worthall and W. H. Settle, have been secured for the program at the fairgrounds.

MANY TO ATTEND BRIDGE OPENING

EXERCISES AT HIGHWAY 57 SPAN WILL BE HELD ON AUGUST 28

Invitations have been received here to attend the formal opening of the Rogers bridge over White river on State Highway No. 57, near Petersburg, Tuesday, August 28.

Mayor William S. Ennes today urged that as many citizens as possible go from here. The mayor and other city officials expect to go in a body.

The invitations received here are signed by W. D. Crow, Henry Read and John C. Chappell, of the Pike county committee on invitations.

SMITH TO LAUNCH CAMPAIGN DRIVE WITH ACCEPTANCE

MANY DEMOS GATHER AT ALBANY—LARGE RADIO HOOKUP TO CARRY MESSAGE TO COUNTRY—CEREMONY TO START AT 4 O'CLOCK, CENTRAL STANDARD TIME

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
 (Associated Press Staff Writer)

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 22.—(AP)—On the east steps of the state capitol, familiar to him from the long years he had devoted to service as an assemblyman and as governor of the state of New York for four terms, Alfred E. Smith will be notified this evening of his nomination as Democratic presidential nominee and in an acceptance speech inform the nation where he stands on the issues of the day.

The address, in which the governor had promised to discuss all subjects including his attitude toward prohibition, in clear, unmistakable language, will formally launch the Democratic drive for a change in administration at Washington and leave the nominee free to map out with political advisers the nature of the fight he will make and how far it will be carried.

Large Radio Hookup

The largest radio hookup ever arranged, 114 stations, including six short wave transmitters, will carry the speech to a waiting electorate and across the nation's border to listeners of other lands.

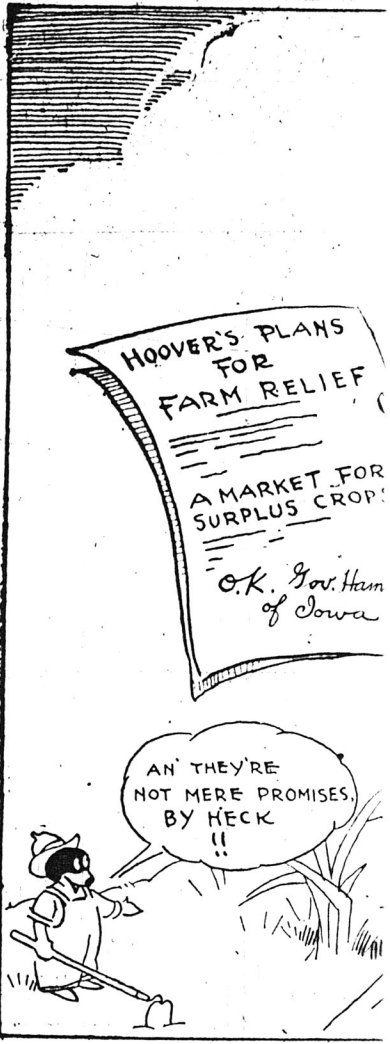

A jammed and fairly decorated city is Albany, waiting to see its adopted son take command of the party that nominated him on the first ballot two months ago at Houston. With thousands already here 18 special trains were headed for the capital today carrying additional thousands from New York and other cities. Boats steaming up the Hudson, busses and automobiles from all directions, were bringing more.

Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, Democratic candidate for vice president, Mrs. Robinson, Senator Pittman, of Nevada, carrying the notification message, and Mrs. Pittman, will be the only house guests of the nominee and Mrs. Smith tonight. They were motor-ing today from Hyde Park, N. Y., with Mr. and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

150,000 to Witness

It has been estimated that approximately 150,000 persons will be able to get within seeing and hearing distance of Governor Smith when he takes the platform on the capitol steps to accept

SEARCH YIELDS NO TRACE OF FLYERS

WORD FROM MACMILLAN TELLS OF BAD WEATHER OVER NORTHERN WATERS

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Storms were sweeping the waters of Davis straits early today, balking the efforts of those seeking some trace of the missing Rockford-to-Stockholm flyers, Bert Hassell and Parker Cramer.

The reports that came from the north were uniformly discouraging. The United States coast guard cutter Marlin radioed that it had failed to find any trace of the plane. The Greater Rockford, after a day spent in searching the waters off Cape Chidley where the monoplane last reported its position.
