al Decline

He quoted Dr. Neal as authority for state-years prior to the present there were 68 hospitals treating 125,000 alcoholics in the United States, and that 4 of them went out of business within two years of prohibition. He declared that Dr. Keeley, of Dwight, Ill., once operated 50 hospitals for treatment of alcoholism, but now has only 12.

"The great moral forces of this country," continued Dr. Gordon, "wrote the Eighteenth amendment into the constitution of the United States. Since then, however, we believe it has gained a new ally, the economic ally. All great employers of labor and captains of industry whom I interviewed, were absolutely united as to the great economic blessing which have followed in the wake of prohibition."

Great Health Measure

"Subsequently centuries will acclaim prohibition as one of the greatest health measures of history," the speaker declared. "The sudden and dramatic decline in tuberculosis with the coming of prohibition is one of the most impressive accomplishments in recent medical history. Other diseases and disorders such as cirrhosis of the liver, pneumonia, alcoholism insanity, delirium tremens, have been greatly reduced under prohibition."

LABOR'S PARADE PLANS TAKE FORM

BUSINESS HOUSES, UNIONS AND FARMERS TO SHARE IN PRIZE AWARDS

Delegates from southwestern Indiana labor unions met in the Central Labor union hall in Oakland City Tuesday evening and completed most of the arrangements for the gigantic parade which will be the opening feature of the big Labor day celebration to be held here Monday, September 5.

Inasmuch as merchants, labor unions and farmers are joining in making the day's program a success, it was decided to offer cash prizes for the best displays or floats made by organizations in each of these three divisions.

Judges for the parade will be Guy DeLott, William Bryant, John Wright, William Calmbach and William McClain. Alternate judges selected were Pap Burton, Curtis Thompson, Ralph Burton and George Powell. Lee Thurman will be in charge of arrangements for the judging.

Judged at Fairground

In order that those who go to the fairgrounds early to spend the day may see the entire parade, the judging stand has been moved from the courthouse lawn to the free act platform in front of the amphitheater. The entire parade will enter the grounds at the northeast gate and pass entirely around the track before disbanding.

Final arrangement for the parade and details as to the speaking program will be worked out at a meeting to be held at 10 o'clock Sunday morning at the C. L. U. hall here. All committee members are asked to attend the meeting. Places for organizations and floats in the parade will be drawn by lot.

Settle to Speak

It is known definitely that William H. Settle, president of the Indiana farm bureau, will be the speaker for the farmers. The labor organizations are lining up their speakers and plans for entertainment of the crowd are also taking shape.
