BITTNER WILL BE SPEAKER AT LABOR DAY MEET

NOTED ORATOR OF UNITED MINE WORKERS TO DELIVER ADDRESS AT BOONVILLE, ON SEPTEMBER 2

William H. Raney, of this city, board member for District 11, this morning received word from John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, that Van A. Bittner, of Fairmount, W. Va., will be the speaker of the day at Boonville, September 2, at the Southwestern Indiana Labor day celebration.

Mr. Bittner is an international representative of the United Mine Workers in the Fairmount territory. He is an orator, famed as a radio speaker and is much in demand.

It will be recalled that in 1919 he represented the United Mine Workers at Washington in the hearing before the United States Coal commission.

Word that a speaker of such standing and ability had been assigned to the Boonville celebration was received with great satisfaction here.

SUGAR SCHEDULE TAKEN UP AGAIN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—(AP)—The senate finance committee again turned its attention today to one of the most controversial sections of the pending tariff bill—the sugar schedule.

Through a resumption of public hearings arranged for the purpose, those most directly interested in the problem were offered an opportunity to go on record for or against the Smoot sliding scale proposal.

This plan, advanced by Chairman Smoot as a means of protecting the American sugar industry from foreign competition and consumers from high prices which might be attributed to the tariff, contemplates a system of imposts on raw sugar automatically ranging up from one to three cents as the price of refined sugar at New York goes down, or vice versa.

NO DECISION ON STREETS JOB YET

The county commissioners were busy today viewing county road jobs recently completed or under construction at the present time. They also viewed the Hazleton street work and viewed the streets that are to be fixed.

Up to a late hour this afternoon they had not decided whether they would let the contract for the street job, which was taken under advisement yesterday.

E. C. May was the lone bidder on the streets job yesterday. His bid was $2,707.

It was thought the contract would
