and it was stated that this ordinance would again be enforced. The ordinance reads that one hour is the parking limit on space in front of business houses on the square from 5 o'clock in the morning till 9:30 at night.

Miss Lorenzana will wear her native dress, and have many interesting and helpful things to tell us about the social and religious customs and habits of her people. She is a beautiful singer. You will enjoy hearing her sing our gospel hymns in her native language. All our young people who saw and heard Miss Lorenzana at the Christian Endeavor convention are very enthusiastic about her coming to our city. She will appear at the United Brethren church at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. No admission fee will be charged. A free will offering will be taken to defray traveling expenses, and help her somewhat in her school expenses.

LABOR DAY PLANS NEAR COMPLETION

As Labor day is fast approaching plans are rapidly getting into shape for the Labor day celebration at Boonville. All labor bodies and trade councils in the state south of the B. & O. railroad will take part in the celebration.

A full day of entertainment is being planned starting with a parade at 10 o'clock and ending with a boxing show at night. Ten bands will take part in the parade. Many noted speakers will make addresses and an excellent entertainment is being arranged. The gala event will be held at the Boonville fairgrounds.

The last meeting was held Sunday at Boonville with several locals from here being represented.
