... apparatus by specially prepared teachers, but for the first time English is taught by one teacher and one teacher gives his entire time to English. The work in English has been unified. It consists of Composition, Grammar, Rhetoric, American and English literature. A small circular giving the outline of the work in English will be ready for the opening of school. It is the intention to make the work in the high school a credit to the city of Princeton. The high school is not a college and does not attempt to teach college subjects nor adopt college methods. It is designed to do good, honest, thorough work in those subjects that prepare boys and girls for the duties of life, whether at the shop, on the farm, in the school or in college. Some do not go to the high school because they do not expect to teach. Others quit high school because they do expect to teach. The high school aims to prepare boys and girls for their highest and best life, whatever or wherever that may be. The conditions of life demand better trained men and women. There is ample opportunity for every one that is prepared for high school. It is to be hoped that parents and friends of education will give this subject more than a passing notice. The pupils now in high school and those ready for it have but few years for school, they have many years for work. Why not make the most of the opportunity now? "It may not pass this way again." Money spent in education is the best investment one can make. There are many parents that can give their children little except a good education. Is not that much due the child whether rich or poor? We have a fine, new assembly room capable of seating 150 pupils, and nice, neat recitation rooms fitted up especially for the work. We have some apparatus that is new and the best to be had on the market, and a small but good working library. We have a force of experienced and competent teachers who have made special preparation for their work and in their respective subjects. The superintendent and trustees will be glad to consult with any one concerning the high school.

... moving from Seminary street to Prince and Clark streets, in the property formerly occupied by Mr. Emerson. Our next trustee of Patoka township, David W. Smith, is occupying the residence on Seminary street vacated by Redman. Mr. Smith will occupy this property while his residence at Broadway and Seminary is undergoing extensive improvements.

"The Agent."

F. M. Rice, makers of the famous Mercantile cigar, of St. Louis, have placed a line of their goods with Ed. Shoptaugh. Chief among the brands is "The Agent," a five cent piece of goods which is as fine as you ever smoked. This cigar can only be found at Shoptaugh's. Try it the next time you want a smoke. 8-20tf

Commissioners.

The county commissioners today granted saloon license to Harry Rike, of this city. The board has killed a good deal of time on various matters and will likely be in session all week, except Thursday and Friday afternoons, when the commissioners will attend the fair.

Petersburg Celebrates.

Petersburg observed Labor Day Monday. Reports say they had a fine parade and a first class celebration. There were five bands on duty during the day: Mt. Vernon, Ill., Oakland City, Petersburg, Otwell and Hazleton.

Will Decide Friday.

Judge Welborn, after hearing the evidence in the Conrad-Purky case announced that he would give his decision Friday as to whether a receiver should be appointed to settle the partnership.

Not Yelling Yet.

The hack men have not begun to yell yet—there's not enough people to yell at.

Licensed to Marry.

Wesley F. Bennett and Minnie Coleman.

Band on Duty.

The Princeton band went out to the fair grounds this afternoon to begin the week's playing engagement. It is expected that the boys will make some splendid music during the week.

No jolts or jars and no deafening racket if you ride in the rubber tire bus to the fair grounds this week.

you should happen to be disappointed in a purchase you have made here you'd accommodate us if you would let us know at once. We think a satisfied customer the best advertisement in the world. We wish to make every one of our customers an advertisement for us.
